University Board of Review

Charge:

Any student or student organization accused of violating the Student Code of Conduct may participate in an informal Administrative Hearing with the Director (of?) and, when appropriate, the complainant. The respondent may choose to forego the informal Administrative Hearing and request that a University Board of Review be held to hear the charge(s). The purpose of an Administrative Hearing is to resolve alleged violations in an informal setting.

Membership:

The maximum number of board members shall be no more than four faculty/staff members and three students but no less than a total of four board members, with at least one member being a student are required to hear a complaint. However, it is required that four board members be present to vote on a complaint or sanction. A faculty member appointed by the Director shall serve as chair of the board. At the discretion of the chair, non-voting board members may be present. Staff and student members are chosen by the President from a pool of names submitted by each Academic Dean, university departments, and by the Student Government Association. Faculty members will be drawn from the University Senate Board of Reviews Pool on Student Misconduct/Academic Dishonesty. To be eligible, students may not be on academic probation or under any university sanctions.
