- Join us in summer 2018 for month-long college credit programs in Cork, Ireland and Brunnenburg Castle, Italy with courses in Creative Writing, Theatre, Film, Literature, Publishing, Journalism & Communications.
- Summer programs are available as stand-alone options and participants are not required to be enrolled in degree-seeking programs to attend our summer classes. Credits may be transferred to home institutions.
- Courses are taught by nationally recognized and prize-winning authors.
- Scheduled excursions and free long weekends for independent travel on both programs.
- Costs include: tuition and university fees, meals, accommodations, insurance, receptions, and more. Financial awards are available, including creative writing contests and state/federal aid.
- A two- or four-week non-credit Cork Writers' Retreat is available.

CREATIVE WRITING LOW RESIDENCY MFA

- UNO's innovative Low Residency MFA in Creative Writing (CWL) combines distance learning with study abroad. During the fall and spring semesters, students participate in online workshops, literature, and craft classes. Every summer, writers attend a month-long summer residency in Ireland or Italy.
- Online students pay only resident tuition fees no matter their location. This means students can complete the required 45 hours of the MFA degree for approximately $25,000 with all summer residencies included. Some financial assistance and monetary awards also available. Tuition and fees are subject to change.

The MFA application deadlines are October 1 for the spring semester and March 15 for the fall/summer. Of the 45 hours required for the degree, at least 18 must be completed in summer residence. Transfer credit accepted.
