

UNO-INNSBRUCK INTERNATIONAL SUMMER SCHOOL

OVER
45
YEARS

INNSBRUCK, AUSTRIA // JULY 2 - AUGUST 12, 2022

Join us next summer for a unique study abroad experience in Innsbruck, Austria. Earn 6-9 credit hours while living in the Heart of the Alps and explore Central Europe on the weekends. The International Summer School is held in one of the most beautiful, scenic, and historic spots of Europe: Innsbruck. You can select from over 40 courses taught, in English, by excellent American and European faculty. On the 3-day weekends, you can choose to travel to other parts of Europe or further explore Innsbruck and its beautiful surroundings.

AMBASSADOR AWARDS,
PLUS OTHER FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE AVAILABLE!

"The UNO-Innsbruck Summer School is truly an amazing program where learning happens both inside and outside the classroom."

Paige Johnson
University of New Orleans

"I thoroughly enjoyed my class because I found it so interesting to learn history where it took place."

Trevor Porter
University of Mississippi

"The highlight of the program was meeting so many new people!"

Genevieve Haylock
Louisiana State University

"100% recommend the UNO-Innsbruck program!"

Parker Jones
University of Georgia

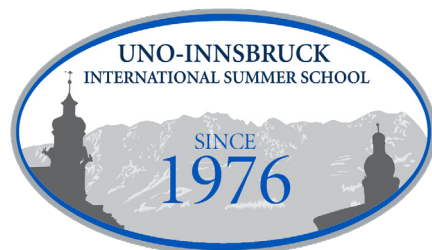

Walking along the Inn river with a view of the Alps becomes a daily routine while studying in Innsbruck.

Innsbruck's central location in Europe allows for easy travel on long, free weekends.

The program offers many field trips and activities with opportunities to hike the mountains around Innsbruck.

Global Ambassador Awards

The Global Ambassador Awards for the UNO-Innsbruck International Summer School are funded in part by the Division of International Education and in part by donations from program sponsors, supporters, and alumni. Ambassadors on the UNO-Innsbruck program are considered representatives of UNO and the U.S. abroad. They represent the program in Innsbruck at special events, meet local and international dignitaries, participate in community projects, and take part in the Buddy Program. Overall, the Global Ambassador program provides UNO students with meaningful leadership experience abroad and deeper insights into the local culture and people.

- ▶ William Carl and Catherine C. Wagner Award: $5,000
- ▶ Gordon H. "Nick" Mueller Award: $4,000
- ▶ John E. Altazan Award: $3,000
- ▶ The Mayor of Innsbruck Award: $3,000
- ▶ Other Global Ambassador Awards: $500 - $2,500

Additional Funding Sources

- ▶ UNO Student Government Association (SGA) Study Abroad Awards
- ▶ Department of History and Philosophy Awards
- ▶ UNO Ambassadors Scholarships
- ▶ Federal Financial Aid
- ▶ VA Benefits for Study Abroad
- ▶ And more...

Students may apply for more than one award. For a complete list of other funding resources and more information about the above awards, see www.uno.edu/studyabroad/scholarships. Crowdfunding may be another option to raise additional funds.

Social Engagement and Service Learning

- ▶ Community outreach opportunities with local organizations
- ▶ Enrichment lectures to deepen intercultural learning
- ▶ Immersion opportunities with locals, such as the "Buddy Program" and host families
- ▶ Volunteer hours will be marked on UNO transcript and service credit may be available.

One of the community outreach projects is to visit a refugee home in Innsbruck and entertain the kids with some games, while learning about the local refugee situation.

Social Engagement opportunities allow students to have a more immersive experience and gain volunteer service hours, such as in this community garden.

Our Global Ambassadors represent the program at special events, such as a meeting and Q&A session with Innsbruck City Council Members.

"Being an Ambassador made the experience even better and I recommend applying for it! Thank you so much for an experience I will carry for a lifetime. I seriously had the summer of my life!"

Hannah Cheramie
UNO Global Ambassador

"My greatest learning experience was getting to meet students from Austria and elsewhere in Europe who attended the University of Innsbruck."

Erik Hokanson
UNO Global Ambassador

"One of the best investments of your life!"

Norman Robles
UNO Global Ambassador

"I attended the refugee camp volunteering event and it was eye-opening to see what kinds of problems they are facing. It put things into perspective for me."

Emma Boyd
UGA Global Ambassador

The Buddy Program, an opportunity to meet local students, is a very popular part of our program in Innsbruck.

The many field trips on this program allow students to learn more about Innsbruck and its surroundings. Here students visit Neuschwanstein Castle in nearby Bavaria.
