5.2.3 It is prohibited for any subscriber or user of Moneypenny’s products or services (collectively, the “Services”) to solicit, collect, store, provide, or publish any personally identifiable healthcare information or protected health information (collectively referred to as “PHI”) about themselves or others by means of or through the use of Moneypenny’s Services or on any storage media hosted or maintained by Moneypenny. It is understood and acknowledged that any such PHI solicited, collected, stored, provided, or published by any Moneypenny Customer or user of Moneypenny’s Services is a material violation of these Terms and is grounds for immediate termination of a member or user’s privileges and/or permission to make use of Moneypenny’s Services. It is further agreed that any person, persons, or entity soliciting, collecting, storing, providing, publishing or otherwise transmitting PHI by means of or through the use of Moneypenny’s Services, including but not limited to the Customer, hereby releases Moneypenny from any and all liability associated with the publication of said PHI and agrees to unconditionally and completely identify and hold harmless Moneypenny from any liability arising from the soliciting, collecting, storing, providing, publishing or otherwise transmitting of such PHI by means of Moneypenny’s Services.

6. BILLING AND PAYMENTS

6.1 By requesting, accepting, and/or utilizing the Services, you agree to provide your chosen payment method (ACH, credit card, wire transfer) as a recurring payment method and authorize the billing of your account for both the initial invoice and subsequent monthly fees and usage fees (if applicable) (collectively, the “Fees”). Payment of Fees for your first and last month’s service plus any options and initial setup fee are required in order to process your order for the Services. After the first month of Services, the Fees will be automatically deducted from your payment method on a monthly basis. It is your responsibility to maintain sufficient balance on your chosen payment method to allow settlement of charges. the interest immediately on demand; or

6.4 Accounts for which Fees are overdue shall be subject to temporary disconnection. In order to reactivate an account disconnected to non-payment of Fees, all overdue Fees must be paid in full, along with a $25 re-activation fee.

6.5 Long-distance or toll-free usage is billed based upon 30-second increments and said usage fees shall be rounded up to the nearest penny on a per-call basis.

6.6 Due to the high costs of delivering excellent services and the remote nature of our clients, our answering services are billed in advance. While we offer limited and brief terms to our customers so that there is no interruption of service in cases where the usage exceeds the estimated and/or pre-paid amounts, it is agreed that the monthly invoice will be adjusted such that any deficit or unpaid usage will be settled and the pre-paid monthly service fee will be adjusted to compensate for the increased usage going forward upon request.

6.7 The Customer agrees that any credits offered by Moneypenny will not be refunded to your chosen payment method, but will be applied to your account with Moneypenny.

6.8 Moneypenny may increase the charges for the Services on an annual basis. Moneypenny shall give the Customer 30 calendar days written notice with information regarding the increase.

6.9 The Customer is responsible for paying all Fees and other charges to your account for Services, including but not limited to, long distance and directory assistance charges, regulatory (USF) Universal Service Fund fees and government fees, and for all taxes and surcharges, including regulatory recovery fees, imposed on you or us as a result of your use of the Services.

6.11 Moneypenny is responsible for collecting sales and use taxes in some states in the US. The taxable zip codes and rates vary and change periodically as new laws and regulations emerge. Moneypenny will make every effort possible to notify you in the event your billing address becomes eligible for collecting these taxes. All taxes and fees are printed on each invoice from Moneypenny as a line item for your convenience. If you are not required to pay taxes now, this does not mean that you are free from tax collection at a later date. If you are tax exempt, please contact us at accounts@moneypenny.com for more information on how to provide the proper documentation in our system to avoid collection.

6.12 Unless otherwise agreed in writing by Moneypenny, all sums due to Moneypenny under the Contract shall be payable within 14 days of the applicable Billing Date.

6.13 All invoices submitted by Moneypenny shall be treated as agreed unless the Customer notifies Moneypenny of any discrepancies within 7 days of the Billing Date.

7. BILLING POLICY

Inbound Operator Minutes: Billable Operator Minutes are measured from the time an inbound call is connected to a live operator, through the entire duration of that call while the operator is on the phone. If the operator has instructions to transfer the caller through to someone, the time while the operator is dialing outbound is also considered billable operator time. Once the call is successfully patched through to the recipient and the operator connects the two together, that stops the billable operator time. We do not charge for the time during which an inbound call is waiting to be answered by an operator.

Wrap-up Time: In some cases, there can be billable Wrap-up Time expended by the operator. An example of this is, when an operator is on a call and collecting their information to send out a message, and then the caller hangs up before the operator has completed typing the information to be delivered. At that point, the call is no longer connected, but the Moneypenny operator is still handling the details of the call to ensure the full message is transcribed and delivered. Wrap-up Time may include but is not limited to activities such as: finishing up typing in the message and/or making notes on the account. Since Wrap-up Time can vary from call to call, we have placed a cap on the maximum Wrap-up Time for which you can be billed up to 180 seconds per call.

Outbound dialing from the mobile app: When using the Moneypenny mobile app on Android or iPhone, you have the capability to make outbound phone calls using the app. This feature does have a cost associated with it of $0.10/minute. It will be reflected on your invoice as a long-distance charge. These minutes are not shown or included on your mydashboard.moneypenny.com billing minutes.

Dispatching: If your account requires dispatching, the entire time that our agents are attempting to dispatch a call or calls to you or your employees is considered billable time. An example of this would be if your account requires us to attempt to reach multiple employees until someone answers, and we have to dial out to more than one person before we successfully connect the caller, that entire leg of the dispatching attempt would be billable time at the rates applicable to your plan.

Rounding: When calculating the total billable time for a call, we add up the Inbound Operator Time, the Wrap-up Time and the Dispatching Time, then round the call time up to the nearest 30-second increment. For example, a call that lasts for 62 seconds, then has 8 seconds of Wrap-up Time, will be billed at 90 seconds. At the end of the invoice period, we will total up all the billable seconds and round up to the nearest minute.

8. EQUIPMENT & SOFTWARE

8.1 All software and hardware in whatever form provided by the Company for the purpose of providing the Services remains the property of the Company. The Company grants the Customer a non-exclusive, non-transferable license to any such software for the purpose of using the Service and for no other purpose. 9.5 Without prejudice to the generality of the other provisions of this Section 9, the Customer warrants that it has and will have all necessary appropriate consents and notices in place to enable lawful transfer of the Personal Data to the Company and the provision of the Services by the Company for the duration and purposes of this agreement.

9.6 The Customer shall, in its use of the Services, only monitor or record calls, or instruct Moneypenny to monitor or record calls, in accordance with Data Protection Laws and all other applicable laws relating to the recording of calls or other interception of communications.
