The Investment Manager Canavan Capital Partners

Canavan Capital Partners is a boutique investment firm employing a contrarian investment strategy. It has a broad investment universe, with a focus on ASX300 companies that are considered by the Investment Manager to be undervalued and out of favour with the market.

The Fund will be managed by Greg Canavan. Greg holds a Bachelor of Commerce degree from Wollongong University and has nearly 30 years of experience in Australian financial markets. He has held prior roles as an equity analyst with a big four bank, Head of Australian Research and Investment Director.

Prior to starting Canavan Capital Partners, Greg spent 15 years at Fat Tail Investment Research, which is an independent Australian financial publisher. During this time Greg offered specialized investment insights and market analysis and developed a following for his strong stock-picking track record.

In December 2024, Greg established a model portfolio with a hypothetical balance of $1 million which was published in the Fat Tail Investment Advisory newsletter. From 1 December to the end of May 2026 (a period of 18 months), the portfolio had an unaudited return of 22.47% p.a. gross of fees³.

The model portfolio performance (maintained on the Navexa portfolio tracking platform) was calculated based on the recommendations provided in the newsletter, with portfolio holdings and weightings updated on the day of the recommendation using market closing prices. It does not reflect the impact of actual trading conditions, implementation timing, market liquidity, transaction costs (unless otherwise stated), taxation or investor-specific circumstances. Actual investor returns may differ, potentially materially, from the model portfolio performance⁴.

While 18 months is not long enough to determine whether the returns were due to good luck or good management, the period covered highly volatile markets in Australia.

Greg believes a disciplined value approach, and the principle that investment decisions should be based on long-term outcomes rather than short-term performance chasing, contributed to those returns.

Greg also believes that too much diversification is detrimental to successful long-term compounding. Therefore, the Fund is benchmark-unaware and seeks to make concentrated bets. It will typically hold between 15-25 stocks.

The Fund can also hold up to 50% cash, and cash like instruments, when compelling opportunities are absent.

³When adjusted to include management fees, performance fees and fund expenses aligned to this Fund, the return is estimated to be 18.67% p.a. (with the exception of brokerage costs). All dividends and realised gains were reinvested throughout this period.

⁴Past performance, including model portfolio performance, is not a reliable indicator of future performance. There is no assurance that the investment strategy will achieve similar results in the future or that any investor will experience returns comparable to those shown.

Investment Opportunity

The Investment Objective of the Fund

The objective of the Fund is to deliver benchmark-beating absolute returns over a 3-5 year period. It seeks to do this by only purchasing companies that offer attractive absolute value, and where the risk/reward trade-off is favourable.

It is Canavan Capital Partner's view that the secret to long-term compounding of returns is to minimise the downside. The objective, therefore, is to always assess the downside risk and let the upside take care of itself.

Avoiding the big loss is much more important than aiming for big gains. Slow and steady wins the compounding race.

The Fund can hold concentrated positions in particular companies or sectors to achieve its goals. It is not constrained by benchmark considerations.

The Fund seeks to capitalise on the market's focus on short-term performance, which creates exploitable long-term inefficiencies. It is therefore prepared to underperform in the short-term to deliver long-term outperformance.

As a result, the Fund can hold up to 50% in cash and cash-like instruments when the Investment Manager cannot find compelling investment opportunities. This is in keeping with the focus on long-term absolute returns.

Investment Process

The Fund can invest in any ASX listed security. The majority of investments will be listed shares from the ASX300 index.

The investment process seeks to invest in high-quality, but out-of-favour companies facing short-term issues. These include a cyclical downturn, where a sector becomes unpopular, or company specific problems, like increased competitive threats, which lead to investors abandoning a stock.

Given the market's focus on short-term performance, these issues can create compelling long-term value for patient investors.

To be clear, the Investment Manager doesn't advocate buying every out of favour company. Bad news is often followed by more bad news. Through poor management and changing industry structures, many companies don't recover. Negative sentiment towards a company or a sector is merely the due diligence starting point.

A key focus for the Investment Manager is on buying established businesses with healthy balance sheets and cashflows.

In keeping with the objective of delivering benchmark beating, absolute long-term compounded returns, the Fund doesn't invest in speculative or pre-revenue companies. It is very difficult to protect against downside risk in these businesses.

A key aspect of the investment process is valuation discipline. For a given level of a company's earnings, the future investment return greatly depends on the price you pay.

When the market is excessively bullish and increasingly speculative, and share prices are high, future returns are likely to be less compelling. As a result, investment in cash or cash like products will typically be higher in this environment.

When the market is depressed and value opportunities are more widespread, future return prospects increase, so the Fund will typically be close to fully invested.

Charting, or basic technical analysis, is also an input into the investment process. Charts reflect market psychology. When the chart shows a company's share price to be in a strong downtrend, the Investment Manager will generally avoid taking a position, unless the valuation is compelling. In such cases, the initial investment will typically be relatively small.

When the share price trend changes and starts trending higher, (thus confirming the investment thesis) the investment weighting can be aggressively increased.

Portfolio Construction

The Fund will typically hold between 15-25 securities.

An individual security holding will typically range from 1% to 8% of the net asset value of the Fund. Cash levels can be as high as 50%.

No individual position will exceed 10% of the Fund's net asset value (at cost). No individual position will exceed 20% of the NAV on an ongoing basis.

As the price of a company or security exceeds a conservative estimate of intrinsic value, risk will be managed by lowering the portfolio weighting.

New positions will be managed conservatively depending on the prevailing individual stock price trend. If a stock price is trending down, the initial portfolio allocation will be small, at around 1-2%. This can increase to high levels in future should the investment thesis play out and the stock price starts to trend higher.

In this way, risk is managed by avoiding being overweight in positions that are trending lower, and reducing positions where price exceeds an estimate of value.

Cash includes cash and cash like products including but not limited to exchange traded funds and listed investment trusts. Derivatives, short selling, and gearing will not be used by the Investment Manager.

The Investment Strategy of the Fund

Canavan Capital Partners seeks to exploit the market's focus on short-term performance relative to benchmarks. This focus puts pressure on many fund managers to avoid out-of-favour companies and sectors, and crowd into popular trades.

This creates long-term pricing inefficiencies.

Once an opportunity is identified, the Fund will invest with conviction, subject to the specific situation. This can involve starting with a large weighting (the maximum initial weighting is 10% (at cost) of the NAV of the Fund or starting small and building to a larger weighting as conviction grows.

Canavan Capital Partners believe too much diversification is detrimental to long-term absolute performance.

Specifically, the Investment Manager seeks to buy companies that generate returns on tangible capital well in excess of the cost of capital. This is the foundation of shareholder wealth creation. Focusing on return on tangible capital (excluding goodwill) provides a good insight into the business's operational strength. The next step is to assess the share price against a company's return on tangible capital, with careful consideration given to the durability of those returns, the cost of capital, and the dividend payout ratio. The analysis is further informed by the company's competitive position, balance sheet strength, and ability to generate sustainable cash flow, all of which contribute to the final investment decision.

Another important consideration is the capital management abilities of the board and management. So many companies destroy value with expensive acquisitions that don't deliver. This will be a key input into the analytical process.

The Fund seeks to hold higher than normal cash levels on average (around 10-20%) to be able to take advantage of occasional market dislocations which often provide attractive prices in very short-term windows.

This may result in weaker relative returns in the short-term but is intended to provide options for superior long-term performance.

The focus on absolute (not relative) returns is designed to produce long-term compounding.

What are the Features & Benefits of the Fund?

The Canavan Capital Partners Australian Share Fund is a highly differentiated investment fund. It is not benchmarked to the market and is therefore not expected to be closely correlated to the market.

The Investment Manager's focus is on absolute returns and absolute value. The Fund will not invest in sectors or companies that don't represent attractive value on an absolute basis. It is the Investment Manager's view that owning an expensive company because it is cheaper than a peer does not make sense.

The Investment Manager will sacrifice short-term returns and patiently wait for compelling value to appear before investing.

Given that most traditional fund managers have a mandate to be fully invested, they focus on relative value of one company to another. Canavan Capital Partners believes this is detrimental to long-term compounding.

The Fund can invest in any company or sector listed on the ASX. It's not limited to large caps, small caps, industrials, resources or technology. Wherever there is perceived value, the Fund may invest.

The Fund may hold up to 50% cash and cash like instruments when market conditions warrant. Although not an ideal outcome, this flexibility enables the Fund to avoid overvalued companies in expensive markets and remain well positioned to capitalise on more attractive opportunities as they arise.

The ability to compound returns successfully over the long-term comes down to disciplined buying. Buying at an attractive price, and holding cash when attractive prices aren't available, provides the best chance of compounding returns successfully over the long-term.

The Fund is a concentrated fund, typically holding 15-25 investments. This ensures only high conviction investments go into the Fund. Over diversification is the enemy of successful long-term compounding.

Alignment

Greg is committed to invest a significant portion of his investable wealth into the Fund.

Canavan Capital Partners Pty Limited and its investment team share in both the upside and downside, as well as having incentives that reward superior absolute investment performance.

Portfolio guidelines

Canavan Capital Partners will seek to manage the Fund's investments within certain portfolio guidelines. These are described in this section.

GUIDELINES	AS A % OF PORTFOLIO VALUE
	Min	Max
Min Cash (or cash equivalents) ⁵	0%	50%
Securities	50%	100%
Unlisted securities	0%	0%
Number of positions (typically but not always)	15	25

Maximum cash holdings are expected to be 50%, but could be higher in some situations such as at commencement of the Fund when it is building out its

Corporate governance

Under the Australian Corporations Act and the Fund documents, investors are provided with several layers of independent oversight providing a robust and appropriate corporate governance structure.

The structure provides additional investor safeguards through the separation of duties, specialisation of expertise, clear lines of responsibility and layered approval processes.

The Fund is operated and administered by an independent trustee (Fundhost) that holds an appropriate AFSL. Fundhost has appointed an independent custodian to hold the assets of the Fund and an independent administrator to provide administration and registry services. Fundhost has appointed Canavan Capital Partners Pty Limited as the investment manager of the Fund.

Distributions

You have the right to receive any distributions made from the Fund (usually shortly after the end of June each year). Distributions may include taxable capital gains although they may also carry imputation and other tax credits. You should consult your tax adviser for any tax related enquiries.

Distributions can be reinvested in the Fund or credited to your nominated account. Distributions are automatically reinvested in the Fund unless you tell us not to do this (see the application form or contact us anytime).

portfolio, or at times when the Fund is experiencing high inflows of investor money, or when the Fund has sold several investments and is receiving the proceeds.

⁵Cash includes cash and cash like products including but not limited to exchange traded funds and listed investment trusts.

Risks

About risk and return

All investments are subject to varying risks and the value of an investment can decrease as well as increase (i.e. you can experience investment losses or investment gains). Changes in value can be significant and they can happen quickly. Investments within categories can have varying performance results. These results are dictated by the individual risk characteristics of the investment, timing and market volatility.

The significant risks for the Fund are discussed below. Not all risks can be eliminated and the risk management strategies that are adopted may not always be successful. However, Canavan Capital Partners follows an investment process whereby risks are considered as an integral part of the investment process.

If these risks occur, distributions may be reduced or there may be none, the value of your investment could fall and you could lose money.

Concentration risk

The Fund will seek to hold a concentrated portfolio of investments, typically between 15-25 securities. The value of the Fund's investments may be more affected by any single adverse event than the investments of a more diversified portfolio.

Canavan Capital Partners will seek to minimise the risks of holding a concentrated portfolio by employing careful investment selection and a disciplined valuation approach.

Cyber risk

There is a risk of fraud, data loss, business disruption or damage to the information of the Fund or to investors' personal information as a result of a threat or failure to protect the information or personal data stored within our IT systems and networks and those of our service providers. Both Fundhost and Canavan Capital Partners seek to minimise cyber risk by having appropriate systems in place consistent with industry standards and updated regularly.

Fund risk

Risks particular to the Fund include that it could terminate (i.e. if its costs of operating become unreasonable), the fees and expenses could change (see the section entitled Can the fees change?), Canavan Capital Partners could be replaced or the Fund terminated, Fundhost could be replaced as trustee and its or Canavan Capital Partners management and staff could change.

There is also a risk that investing in the Fund may give different results than investing individually because of income or capital gains accrued in the Fund and the consequences of investment and withdrawal by other investors.

Individual investment risk

The Fund is exposed to the risk that poor stock selection occurs whereby individual investments selected by the Investment Manager for inclusion in the Fund either underperform the market or perform poorly in an absolute sense. This risk is magnified by the degree of concentration inherent in this portfolio.

Investment Manager risk

It is possible that Canavan Capital Partners could be wound up or liquidated, it might cease to manage the investments of the Fund and be replaced, its investment methodology could change or it could manage risks poorly.

If the investment strategy of this Fund changed significantly, you would be given at least 30 days' notice (where practicable).

Fundhost has the power to terminate and replace Canavan Capital Partners as the Investment Manager, or to terminate the Fund in the interests of unitholders.

Key person risk

Greg Canavan is the primary representative of Canavan Capital Partners performing investment management related activities. The Fund's performance depends on his expertise and on the consequences of the investment decisions that he makes. In the event of the death or incapacity of Mr Canavan, it is likely that a timely wind up of the Fund would occur. Fundhost would manage the process to support an orderly wind up.

Liquidity risk

There are circumstances under which access to your money may be delayed – refer to Accessing your investment.

Further, the level of overall market liquidity is an important factor that may contribute to the profitability of the Fund and access to your money. Illiquid markets can make it difficult to trade profitably and to realise assets in a timely fashion to meet withdrawal requests.

Please refer to Accessing your investment.

The investments the Fund will invest in may also face liquidity risk themselves.

Units in the Fund are not quoted on any stock exchange and you cannot sell them through a stockbroker.

Market risk

Economic, technological, climate, political or legal conditions, health conditions such as pandemics, interest rates and even market sentiment can (and do) change over time and this can lead to changes in the value of investment markets. While the Fund's exposure will be differentiated from the broad sharemarket indices and may perform very differently from the market at any particular point in time, because it will hold mostly listed securities, the Fund will carry market risk exposure and may decline more or less in line with the market during market downturns.

As these conditions change through time, they can cause unanticipated changes to the value of the investments in the Fund.

Small and micro caps risk

Canavan Capital Partners may seek opportunity in the micro and small capitalisation segments of the market. Micro cap companies can often be particularly illiquid, and the liquidity profile of investments across the portfolio may be strongly correlated such that market dislocations or an abrupt change in market sentiment can adversely affect both the value and the liquidity of large portions of the portfolio at the same time therefore posing additional risks to the Fund. This risk is mitigated by ensuring there is a basic degree of liquidity inherent within the portfolio, and that there is basic diversification not only of the economic types of securities, but also their perceived liquidity profile.

Ultimately, an investment in the Fund should be considered a long-term investment and investors should be prepared to accept a greater degree of valuation volatility and a reduction in the liquidity profile should the Fund seek to benefit from mispricing among smaller and less liquid securities.

Fees and Costs

Management fees and costs

The Fund will pay the Investment Manager a management fee of 1.13% per annum of the Fund's portfolio value. This fee accrues monthly and is paid monthly in arrears.

Under the Trust Deed, the Fund is also responsible for expenses reasonably incurred in the proper administration and operation of the Fund. These expenses may include, but are not limited to, trustee, audit, legal, administration and other operating expenses incurred in relation to the Fund.

Fee cap

Management fees and costs payable by the Fund (other than performance fees, abnormal costs and transaction costs) are capped at 1.26% p.a. Fees or expenses over these caps will be paid by the Investment Manager and may be recovered over time from the Fund. Fund build costs may also be recovered over time.

Abnormal costs

Fundhost and the Investment Manager may incur non-recurrent expenses on behalf of the Fund. These expenses may include, but are not limited to, litigation, legal and other expert's fees, travel and accommodation costs, and other expenses arising from managing the Fund. Fundhost may charge additional fees for its own time spent on such matters.

These are deducted from the assets of the Fund as and when they are incurred. These are not included in the recurrent recoverable expense estimate or the fee cap.

Abnormal expenses are expected to occur infrequently.

Performance fee

Canavan Capital Partners is entitled to a performance fee of 15.38% of the amount by which the Fund (after fees and expenses but before distributions) outperforms its benchmark over a calculation period. The benchmark for the purpose of calculating the performance distribution is the RBA cash rate plus 5%. RBA cash rate changes will be reflected on the first day of the following month.

The performance fee is payable annually as at 30 June and is subject to a high water mark. The high water mark means the highest unit price at the end of a performance period where a performance fee has been paid, adjusted for subsequent distributions.

Transaction costs

Transaction costs include brokerage, settlement costs, clearing costs and stamp duty costs. The Fund will incur and pay transaction costs when buying or selling investments. Some of these costs are recovered through the buy-sell spread (see below).

Can the fees change?

Yes, all fees can change. The Trust Deed for the Fund sets the maximum amount that can be charged in fees. The approval of investors is needed in order to raise fees above the amounts allowed for in the Trust Deed.

You will receive at least 30 days' written notice of any proposed increase to fees charged under this IM.

Buy-sell spread

When you invest in the Fund, the Fund buys investments, and this incurs costs (for example, to buy shares, a broker charges a fee). When you withdraw, investments are sold so cash can be paid to you, and this costs money too. This is called a buy-sell spread. A buy-sell spread is an adjustment to the unit price reflecting Fundhost's estimate of the transaction costs that may be incurred as a result of the purchase/sale of assets arising from the issue/withdrawal of units. This adjustment ensures that existing investors do not pay costs associated with other investors acquiring/withdrawing units in the Fund. The buy-sell spread is reflected in the buy and sell unit prices.

Currently, the buy-sell spread is estimated to be 0.40% of the unit price (that is an adjustment of +0.20% on the entry price and -0.20% on the exit price is made). So if the net asset value of each unit is $1.00, on entry the unit price is adjusted up approximately 0.20% (up 0.20 cents) and on exit down approximately 0.20% (down 0.20 cents). None of this amount is paid to Fundhost nor is money deducted from your account. You won't see the buy-sell spread on any account statement.

Can fees be different for different investors?

We may negotiate fees with investors. The size of the investment and other relevant factors may be taken into account. The terms of these arrangements are at the discretion of Fundhost on advice from the Investment Manager. Any fee rebates paid to investors are a cost to Canavan Capital Partners and not to the Fund.

Government charges and taxation

Taxes such as GST will be applied to your account if required by law. In addition to the fees and costs described in this section, standard government fees, duties and bank charges may also apply. Some of these charges may incur additional GST and will apply to your investments and withdrawals as appropriate.

The fees outlined in this document take into account applicable GST and any reduced input tax credits which may be available.

Privacy

Fundhost collects and uses personal information about you to administer your investment and also to conduct research.

By applying for units in the Fund you consent and agree to information about you being obtained and used by Fundhost. Fundhost will collect and use your information in accordance with our Privacy Policy, a copy of which is available from Fundhost free of charge.

If you fail to provide Fundhost with the required information or if you provide Fundhost with incomplete or inaccurate information Fundhost may not be able to provide you with the products or services you are seeking within the time periods contemplated in this IM.

Your information will not be disclosed unless:

- the law requires;
- your financial adviser needs the information;
- it is in keeping with Fundhost's Privacy Policy and may be provided to external service providers including Canavan Capital Partners, auditors, taxation and legal advisers, and information technology consultants; or
- Fundhost needs it to send you promotional material. If you don't want this, indicate on the application form or contact Fundhost anytime.

Fundhost will disclose information if required by law to do so (including under anti-money laundering and counter-terrorism financing legislation).

If you think any of the details that Fundhost holds are wrong or out of date contact Fundhost and they will correct the details. You can always access the personal information held about you by contacting Fundhost.

Anti-Money Laundering and Counter-Terrorism Financing

In order to meet Fundhost's obligations under the AML CTF Act or other applicable taxation or reporting legislation (including the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act and Common Reporting Standards legislation), Fundhost may require further information from you as to identity, the source of your funds and similar matters. Fundhost may be required to verify that information by sighting appropriate documentation. Records of the information obtained will be kept and may be required by law to be disclosed. Otherwise the information will be kept confidential.

By applying for units in the Fund, you also agree that Fundhost may in its absolute discretion determine not to issue units to you, may cancel units which have been issued to you or may redeem any units issued to you if Fundhost believe such action to be necessary or desirable in light of its obligations under the AML CTF Act or other legislation and Fundhost will not be liable to you for any resulting loss.

Accessing your investment

Generally, you may access your investment monthly. You must provide your written notice of withdrawal to us by mail, email or fax. See Applications and withdrawals processing for details of cutoff times.

Despite being able to redeem your units monthly, an investment in the Fund should be viewed as a medium to long term investment.

How to withdraw

Units in the Fund are not listed on any stock exchange like the ASX, so you cannot sell your units through a stockbroker.

If you want to withdraw your money, simply contact us in writing and tell us how much you need to withdraw. This is called a redemption request.

Fundhost accepts scanned or faxed redemption requests on the following conditions:

- all instructions must be legible;
- instructions must bear your investor number and signature; and
- redemption proceeds will only be transferred to the financial institution account previously nominated on the application form or otherwise notified to Fundhost in writing (Fundhost needs an original signed by the account signatories to effect such a change).

To use this service, you will need to accept full responsibility (to the extent permitted by law) for loss arising from Fundhost acting upon faxed or scanned instructions which comply with these security processes and you also agree to release and indemnify Fundhost in respect of any liabilities arising from it acting on faxed or scanned instructions (including future instructions), even if those instructions are not genuine. Also you agree that neither you nor any other person has any claim against Fundhost in relation to a payment made or action taken under the facsimile or scanned instruction service if the payment is made in accordance with these conditions. These terms and conditions are additional to any other requirements for giving redemption instructions.

The amount of money you receive is determined by the unit price applicable to your redemption request. Fundhost can withhold from amounts it pays you any amount you owe Fundhost or Fundhost owes someone else relating to you (for example, the tax office).

Fundhost generally pays all redemption proceeds in cash, but Fundhost is permitted under the trust deed for the Fund to pay proceeds in kind (i.e. in specie share transfer).

Payments can be delayed

In certain circumstances Fundhost may need to delay withdrawal of your money. Fundhost can delay withdrawal of your money for up to 180 days or such period as Fundhost considers appropriate including (but not limited to) circumstances where:

- something outside Fundhost's control affects its ability to properly or fairly calculate the unit price (for example, if the investments are subject to restrictions or if there is material market uncertainty like a stock market crash);
- In respect of a monthly cutoff time, Fundhost receives a quantity of withdrawal requests which in aggregate exceed 10% of the net asset value of the Fund. In this case, Fundhost may stagger withdrawal payments pro rata to investors over time; or
- Fundhost otherwise determines in its absolute discretion (but it must always act in the best interests of investors as a whole when deciding to do this).

The Trust Deed sets out the full range of circumstances in which Fundhost can delay withdrawal of your money.

We can give you back your invested money without you asking

In certain circumstances Fundhost can, or may be required to, also redeem some or all of your units without you asking. These circumstances include (but are not limited to):

- if you breach your obligations to Fundhost (for example, you provide misleading information in your application form);
- to satisfy any amount of money due to Fundhost (as trustee or in any other capacity relevant to the Fund) by you;
- to satisfy any amount of money Fundhost (as trustee or in any other capacity relevant to the Fund) owes someone else relating to you (for example, to the tax office);

- where Fundhost suspects that law prohibits you from legally being an investor; or
- such other circumstance as Fundhost determines in its absolute discretion (but Fundhost must always act in the best interests of investors as a whole when deciding to do this).

The Trust Deed sets out the full range of circumstances in which Fundhost can give you back your invested money without you asking.

How Fundhost calculates unit prices

Fundhost calculates unit prices in three steps:

- it calculates the value of the investments of the Fund and take away the value of the liabilities as defined in the Fund's Trust Deed;
- it divides this result by the number of units on issue to obtain the unit mid-price;
- it then makes an adjustment (up for the entry price, to take account of the costs of buying investments or down for the exit price to take account of the costs of realising investments) called a buy-sell spread. The buy-sell spread does not represent a fee to Fundhost or Canavan Capital Partners and is discussed in more detail in the section "Buy-sell spread".

These steps give a price per unit.

Fundhost determines the market value of the Fund at least each month end based on the closing market prices for the last business day of that month.

Distributions

The Fund generally distributes net realised gains and income annually as at 30 June. Income distributions are usually reinvested at the end of each financial year (June), but you can tell Fundhost if you do not want to automatically reinvest distributions or advise Fundhost in writing anytime if you would like Fundhost to pay them to your nominated Bank Account. Any distributions reinvested are reinvested at the ex-distribution mid price.

Distributions may also be paid at other times, or in some years, not paid at all.

Reporting

Keeping you informed

Fundhost will:

- confirm every transaction you make;
- soon after June each year send you a report to help you with your tax return;
- each year (around September) make the accounts of the Fund available to you on our website;
- send you your annual statement;
- notify you of any material changes to this IM and any other significant event as required by law; and
- send you a monthly investment report each month.

What about Fund performance?

If you are interested in:

- up to date Fund performance; or
- current unit prices

then ask your financial adviser, call Fundhost on +61 (0)2 8223 5400, or go to www.fundhost.com.au

Up to date information is always free of charge. Don't forget that any past returns are just that, just because they happened doesn't mean they will happen again. Returns are volatile and may go up and down significantly and sometimes quickly.

Taxation

Your tax liability ultimately depends on your circumstances, for example, whether you are an Australian resident. So it's important that you seek professional advice before you invest or deal with your investment.

In all likelihood you will need to pay tax in relation to your investment in this Fund. Generally you will pay income or capital gains tax, but you might be able to claim some tax credits or have the benefit of some concessions.

Fundhost will send you the information you need each year to help you to complete your tax return.

Fundhost will generally distribute any income and realised gains, if any, annually. Distributions could comprise:

- income (like dividends and interest); and
- net taxable capital gains (from the sale of the Fund's investments); and
- tax credits (like franking credits attached to dividend income and credits for tax paid on foreign income).

Fundhost may also pay interim distributions.

Additionally, Australian residents are generally subject to capital gains tax on gains when they withdraw any money or transfer units.

Depending on the kind of taxpayer you are, and how long you have held your units, you may be entitled to a capital gains concession which can reduce the liability by up to one half.

If you choose not to provide Fundhost with your tax file number (TFN) or Australian business number (ABN) and don't have an exemption, Fundhost must deduct tax at the highest personal rate, plus the Medicare levy, before passing on any distribution to you. The law is very strict on how Fundhost can use these details.

You should seek your own tax advice to ensure the Fund is appropriate for you. Neither Fundhost nor Canavan Capital Partners provide any tax advice.

A taxation regime for managed investment trusts has been introduced called the Attribution Managed Investment Trust (AMIT) regime. Subject to the Fund being eligible, Fundhost can elect to operate the Fund under this regime. As an AMIT the Fund can attribute amounts of income and tax offsets to investors on a fair and reasonable basis. There is also an ability to adjust the cost base of an investor's interest in a Fund upwards or downwards. Should Fundhost make this election investors will be advised on our website.

How the Fund Works

Fund structure

When you invest in the Fund your money (together with all other investors' monies) is gathered in one place and invested in assets. Fundhost has appointed Canavan Capital Partners to manage the Fund. Canavan Capital Partners uses its resources, experience and expertise to make the investment decisions.

Fundhost has appointed an independent custodian to hold the assets of the Fund and an independent administrator to provide administration and registry services.

Units

The Fund is a unit trust. This means your interests in the Fund are represented by units. Certain rights (such as the right to any income and a right to vote) attach to your units. You may also have obligations in respect of your units.

Each unit has a value which Fundhost calculates. When you invest, Fundhost issues you a number of units depending on the amount you invest. Similarly, when you withdraw from the Fund, Fundhost calculates your withdrawal proceeds by reference to the number and value of units you hold at the time of withdrawal. Generally, the price of units will vary as the market value of assets in the Fund rises or falls.

Summary of the Trust Deed

The Fund is governed by a Trust Deed dated 25 June 2026, as amended from time to time. The Trust Deed sets out Fundhost's obligations as well as the rights of investors. Key aspects of the Trust Deed have been summarised in this section.

Generally, Fundhost may amend the Trust Deed where it considers such changes will not adversely affect an investor's rights. If Fundhost considers the amendments are not in the best interests of investors as a whole, the amendments may only be made with the approval of at least 50% by value of units in the Fund.

You may view a copy of the Trust Deed at Fundhost's offices on any business day and you may obtain a copy free of charge by contacting Fundhost.

Classes of units

Under the Trust Deed for the Fund, Fundhost may issue units in one or more classes and may create additional classes of units at any time.

Rights of investors

Subject to the Trust Deed of the Fund, investors are generally entitled to:

- receive a share of the Fund's distributable income;
- request a redemption of units;
- transfer units; and
- inspect the Trust Deed.

Unitholder meetings

Subject to the Trust Deed of the Fund, investors are also entitled to requisition, attend and vote at investors' meetings for the Fund. An investor is bound by a resolution of investors, whether or not they attend the meeting at which it is passed.

Interest in the Fund

Each unit issued in the Fund entitles the investor to a beneficial interest in the total investments of the Fund but does not give the investor an interest in any particular part of the Fund.

Unitholder liability

The Trust Deed limits an investor's liability in relation to the Fund to the amount the investor has invested, however the law in relation to investor liability has not yet been settled. Under the Trust Deed Fundhost can recover from you any taxes or other amounts that the Fund is required to pay because you hold units or because of any action you have taken or failed to take, either by deduction from amounts payable to you or by redemption of some of your units.

Termination of the Fund

Fundhost can terminate the Fund at any time at its discretion or when required by law. If the Fund is terminated, Fundhost must generally convert the Fund's assets to cash and pay off the Fund's liabilities (including those incurred in winding up the Fund and any unpaid fees including performance fees).

Investors are then entitled to a share of the balance of the assets in accordance with the Trust Deed. This will be the final distribution of the Fund. The final distribution may include both a capital and income component.

Related Party Transactions and Conflicts of Interest

Fundhost does not engage in any related party transactions with any person. All dealings with other parties are at commercial, arms' length terms.

Fundhost may earn interest on distribution accounts from time to time and will retain any interest earned on distribution accounts.

Fundhost has a conflicts of interest policy and register which it maintains in accordance with the law. It seeks to address any conflicts that may arise as part of Fundhost's business and that relate to the Fund.

Canavan Capital Partners is or may become the Investment Manager for other funds that invest in many of the same assets as this Fund. Canavan Capital Partners endeavours to ensure that all portfolios are treated fairly by ensuring that, where appropriate, trades in the assets are undertaken as block trades and allocated pro rata according to the size of each portfolio.

Greg Canavan the sole portfolio manager for the Fund has previously worked at Fat Tail Investment Research Pty Ltd ("Fat Tail") as a writer on macro and individual stock picks. Canavan Capital Partners (not the Fund) will pay Fat Tail a commission for each Fund investor who is a Fat Tail customer at the time of their investment in the Fund.
