A place to call home

Mateo's I is a spacious one-bedroom apartment on Hillcrest Drive in True Blue, offering unusually strong value for this part of the SGU rental market at just US$850 per month. Set within an established student apartment complex with multiple neighbouring units, the apartment has a comfortable residential feel while keeping the university and True Blue amenities close at hand. The layout includes a separate furnished bedroom, a generous living area, dining space and a practical fitted kitchen. The photographs show a bright, simply furnished interior with tiled floors, a gas stove and oven, microwave, generous worktop and cupboard space, and a bedroom with a built-in study desk positioned by the windows. Internet is available, making the apartment practical for both everyday living and study.
