A WORD FROM OUR SOMMELIER

A confession

Before I joined HORTA, I knew next to nothing about Spanish wine. I was fluent in Bordeaux and Burgundy: the gold standard, and in fact the only standard, for my guests at the exalted places where I worked in St Petersburg.

When I set out to build the wine list, my palate could not make sense of the bewildering variety of flavours and aromas coming from obscure indigenous grapes like Rufete and Albillo. I was shocked, but I was also intrigued, and began to explore a new world that has since become mine.

Somewhere along the numerous tastings, I fell in love. Today I am a convert, and like every convert, I can't stop talking about it. Nothing makes me happier than pouring a guest a wine they have never heard of and watching them smile. So ask me anything, let me surprise you, and allow Spain to win you over the way it won me.

I did not make this journey alone. My heartfelt thanks go to Alessandro Tondini, my counterpart at NAZKA and WineProfessional's Sommelier of the Year 2026, who guided me through those first months. Alessandro, I could not have done this without you.

LA HORA DEL VERMUT

In Spain the meal begins before the first plate arrives. Start as they do: with a vermouth, good company and an appetite for what is to come.

BLANCO

El Bandarra Blanco Casa Berger · Catalunya 7

Garnacha Blanca and Xarel·lo with more than 40 botanicals: rosemary, honey, a touch of orange marmalade and bitter wormwood.

La Copa Reserva Extra Dry González Byass · Jerez 7

On a base of fino sherry: dry and herbal, with wild herbs, a hint of red fruit and a savoury, balsamic edge.

61 Vermut Verdejo Bodega Cuatro Rayas · Rueda 9

100% Verdejo base. Scrubland aromas of fennel, elderflower, thyme and rosemary; a long, bitter, balsamic finish.

Lustau Vermut Blanco Lustau · Jerez 10

Dry fino and floral moscatel with gentian, wormwood and thyme: grapefruit, dried apricot and a fresh, drying finish.

ROJO

Vermut Rojo Nordés Atlantic Galician Spirits · Galicia 7

Wild Galician herbs, balsamic undertones and a light citrus freshness. Best over ice with a slice of orange.

Vermut de Capçanes Celler de Capçanes · Montsant 8

White Garnacha and Macabeo with willow flower and sage, aged 24 months in French oak soleras: bittersweet and bold.

Perucchi Gran Reserva Perucchi · Badalona, since 1876 8

From Spain's oldest vermouth house: Macabeo and over 50 botanicals, aged in solera in old oak foudres.

La Copa Reserva González Byass · Jerez 10

Oloroso and Pedro Ximénez soleras over eight years old, with wormwood, clove and cinnamon: smooth, spiced, elegantly bitter.

Lustau Vermut Rojo Lustau · Jerez 10

Amontillado and Pedro Ximénez with ten botanicals: toffee, dried apricot, orange peel and cocoa.
