

Cookie Policy

Effective Date: June 26, 2026

What Are Cookies?

Cookies are small text files placed on your device when you visit a website. They help websites function properly, remember user preferences, and improve overall performance.

How We Use Cookies

CANDOR uses cookies to:

- Improve website functionality
- Understand visitor behavior
- Measure website performance
- Analyze traffic
- Improve marketing effectiveness

Types of Cookies We May Use

Essential Cookies

Required for website functionality, security, and form submissions.

Analytics Cookies

Used to understand how visitors interact with our website. These may include services such as Google Analytics.

Marketing Cookies

If enabled, marketing cookies help us understand advertising performance and may support remarketing through services like the Meta Pixel or similar advertising platforms.

Preference Cookies

These remember user preferences to improve future visits.

Managing Cookies

Most browsers allow you to manage, block, or delete cookies through browser settings. Disabling certain cookies may affect website functionality.

Third-Party Cookies

Some cookies may be placed by trusted third-party services integrated into our website.

These providers maintain their own privacy policies governing their data practices.

Updates

We may update this Cookie Policy periodically. Any changes will be reflected on this page.
