Please pay close attention to your exhibit space dimensions and plan accordingly taking into consideration the following restrictions regarding aisle widths. Any questions of clarifications should be directed to show management before set up takes place.

- All RV Dealer displays over 5,000 sqft must have 1 entry in the front of the display and another at the back of the display. Preferably to main aisles.
- Interior aisles of RV Dealer displays must be a minimum of 4' at their narrowest point. For example if two RV's are displayed parallel to one another and the steps coincide with each other, their must be a minimum of 4' between the steps.
