

The Composites Solution Partner

July 9, 2025

Dear Supplier,

In reference to the sale of Teijin Automotive to Aurelius and the company name change to CSP, below are answers to some questions you may have:

Q. Has the name officially changed?

A. Our brand has changed but the legal entity remains Teijin Automotive Technologies, Inc.

Q. When will the name legally change?

A. The legal name change will be within 90 - 180 days of July 1. When the legal name is changed you will be notified.

Q. Will you have a new Tax ID?

A. No.

Q. Will there be a change to your banking information?

A. Yes, but not immediately. Again, when the change occurs, we will inform you.

Q. Will there be a new DUNS #?

A. No.

Q. Will new purchase orders be issued?

A. No. If a purchase order is updated, the name will be changed, but not the PO number.

Q. Will you be updating your Terms and Conditions?

A. Only to the extent of the name change.

Q. Are my contacts changing?

A. No. The people you work with at CSP are the same going forward. However, please note that our email addresses have changed as follows:

- Individuals = firstname.lastname@thecsp.com
- Accounts payable = accountspayable@thecsp.com
- Purchasing = procurement@thecsp.com

Q. Will a new Non-Disclosure Agreement (NDA) be required?

A. No.

Q. Can we (supplier) use your new logo in any of our company portfolio documents?

A. Please contact kim.zitny@thecsp.com in our corporate communications department to discuss.

Q. Do I need to resubmit the IATF waiver if my company already has one on file?

A. No, we will maintain the existing waivers.

Q. Are there any changes to the Supplier Quality Manual, besides the name/logo change?

A. No.
