

IMPORTANT NOTICE

NASBA will implement a new licensing system during the upcoming month. Below are the important dates related to the transition to the new application system:

July 11, 2026: Last day to submit applications in the current system.

July 12 to August 2, 2026: No applications will be accepted during this transition period.

August 3, 2026: The application process will resume in the new system.

Every CPA in Puerto Rico must create a new account and complete the corresponding validation process according to their renewal date. NASBA will have its entire customer service department available to assist and guide you.
