

WRS Standard Rubric

Criteria	Ratings				Pts
Content	50 to >40.0 pts Proficient The student has addressed the key issues in the passage/subject with great clarity and insight. The student has demonstrated he is aware of how the larger context surrounding the passage/subject impacts his interpretation/understanding of the subject matter.	40 to >20.0 pts Sufficient The student has addressed the key issues in the passage/subject. The student has demonstrated he is aware of how the larger context surrounding the passage/subject impacts his interpretation/understanding of the subject matter.	20 to >0.0 pts Needs Work The student has not addressed the key issues in the passage/subject. The student has not demonstrated he is aware of how the larger context surrounding the passage/subject impacts his interpretation/understanding of the subject matter.	0 pts No Points This element is missing or is completely inadequate.	50
Sources Used	25 to >20.0 pts Proficient The student has incorporated substantially more than the required number of secondary sources into his work and the sources are acceptable for master level research.	20 to >10.0 pts Sufficient The student has incorporated the appropriate number of secondary sources into his work and the sources are acceptable for master level research.	10 to >0.0 pts Needs Work The student has not incorporated the appropriate number of secondary sources into his work and/or a large number of the sources are not acceptable for master level research.	0 pts No Points This element is missing or is completely inadequate.	25
Formatting/ Grammar	25 to >20.0 pts Proficient The form of the submission fully follows the instructions of the respective assignment. There are no grammar, syntax, spelling, or typing errors. The work fully adheres to the WRS Style Guide as appropriate to the assignment.	20 to >10.0 pts Sufficient The form of the submission satisfactorily follows the instructions of the respective assignment. There are a few and/or minor grammar, syntax, spelling, and/or typing errors. The work satisfactorily adheres to the WRS Style Guide as appropriate to the assignment.	10 to >0.0 pts Needs Work The form of the submission does not follow the instructions of the respective assignment. There are numerous grammar, syntax, spelling, and/or typing errors. The work does not adhere to the WRS Style Guide as appropriate to the assignment.	0 pts No Points This element is missing or is completely inadequate.	25
Total points: 100					