

Do you need assistance?

You have the right to assistance when voting

You decide who assists you

You have the right to assistance to vote without having to specify a reason.

The election official or someone else you choose can assist you. If you have your own assistant, they must fill out a form.

Confidentiality

To ensure confidentiality, the person assisting you is bound to secrecy as to what occurs between you in the voting booth.