What MASARNA is and is not

MASARNA is a free mentorship and community platform supporting Emiratis navigating the private sector.

MASARNA exists to offer guidance, perspective, and community through thoughtful mentorship and shared experience. Our aim is to help Emiratis move through the private sector with more clarity, confidence, and support.

What MASARNA is

MASARNA is:

- a mentorship and community platform
- a space for guidance, encouragement, and shared experience
- a platform designed to support Emiratis navigating the private sector
- a place where mentors and mentees can connect through thoughtful, human support

What MASARNA is not

MASARNA is not:

- an employer
- a recruitment agency
- a provider of therapy or crisis support
- a provider of legal, medical, or psychological advice
- a guarantee of job opportunities, promotions, internships, or specific outcomes

Mentors participate in MASARNA on a voluntary basis. Their role is to share perspective, encouragement, and lived experience. They do not act as recruiters, therapists, or regulated professional advisers.

While MASARNA aims to make thoughtful matches where possible, completing a form or expressing interest does not guarantee a mentor match.

MASARNA also reserves the right to pause, decline, or end participation where appropriate, including where expectations, boundaries, or respectful conduct are not being met.

If you are looking for therapy, medical support, legal advice, psychological support, or emergency assistance, MASARNA is not the right service for those needs.
