

Linkside Wonder

Harry Potter House

There once was a boy who lived in a cupboard under the stairs...

The Dursleys may have been happy with their perfectly normal house on Privet Drive. But we saw how they turned out.

It might be a better idea to seek the extraordinary.

Maybe even the magical. ✨

For an enchanted encounter, enter Linkside Wonder and step into the world of Harry Potter. 🧙

Why choose a simple bedroom when you can snuggle in a lofty bunk in an owlery, under an overflowing bookcase of spell books?

Or...

Start your entire vacation over again with Hermione's Time Turner?
Search for what's hidden in the Room of Requirement?
Play arcade games in the Gryffindor common room?

And, sure, a house with a bathroom good enough for a prefect would be nice, but what if you found one with a faucet that led to a certain Chamber, one that might conceal a Secret, perhaps, of terrible importance? Just don't let Argus Filch catch you prowling around after students are supposed to be in bed.

Linkside Wonder is the only vacation rental where if you forget to bring a book, Flourish and Blott's (North Side of Diagon Alley, you can't miss it) might help you find one.

Built with imagination down to the last detail, Linkside Wonder is the crowning achievement of HGTV-featured designer, Moe Anato.

For 20 years, Moe specialized in furnishing custom rooms for residences, hotels and exhibits at theme parks. Linkside Wonder represents a new stage in Moe's career: fully bespoke vacation homes designed and built around the magic from the ground up. Nicknamed the Theme Queen, Moe now transforms ordinary spaces into one-of-a-kind fantasy adventures. Vacation in a home that matches the excitement of a world-class theme park and as Moe states, "bring the magic home with you."

Linkside Wonder is one of the only residences in the world where every last inch is the result of a creative decision for it to be exactly the way it is.

You won't find a house as immersive and spectacularly Harry Potter as Linkside Wonder anywhere in the world, except maybe at Hogwarts.

Linkside Wonder taps into the joy of J.K. Rowling's books: their rich, layered, palpable world. Each Harry Potter book is full of little intricacies, magical knickknacks, and captivating characters. Every item has a story behind it, and so does every place. People live in that world.

Now, you can leave the dull, the humdrum, and the routine behind, and live in Harry Potter's world, too.

Linkside Wonder is just minutes away from The Wizarding World of Harry Potter at Universal Orlando, and the missing ingredient to make your vacation a once-in-a-lifetime, 24-hour escape, not just a trip to a theme park.

Why just spend a few hours in Harry Potter's world when your kids (or you) can go to sleep and wake up in it? Hang out in it? Dream in it? ^{z^z}

Non-Potter enthusiasts can relax in it, too. Linkside Wonder is located in the prestigious Reunion Resort and Golf Club in Orlando, Florida. The resort grounds include 3 signature golf courses, a 5-acre water park, tennis center, miniature golf course, fitness center, 7 bars and restaurants, 7 community pools, and more.

The house itself is fit for Dumbledore's Army and comes equipped with celebrity-style amenities, including 4 adult suite bedrooms, 2 children's bedrooms with a total of 8 beds, 6 vast, gorgeous Art Deco bathrooms with opulent showers, a modern, bright kitchen, a sleek, capacious home theater (ideal for a marathon of a certain fantasy wizarding series), a gaming area with the newest PS5 and Xbox, two racing arcade games, a professional-sized air hockey table, and dual TVs, an inviting, turquoise swimming pool, and a roofed-in outdoor patio area with two patio tables, lounge chairs and a grilling station.

Why you'll never forget this home: it's a luxury experience for Potter fans and non-Potter fans alike.

Moe matches theme details that will satisfy even the most voracious and demanding Potter enthusiasts with elegant, one-of-a-kind interior design that's comfortable, striking, and perfect for staying in or entertaining.

The quality and uniqueness of its design, wallpaper, furnishings, accents, fixtures and appliances make Linkside Wonder feel permanent, deliberate, just for you—the opposite of a hotel.

Make Harry Potter's beautiful, extraordinary world your home, if only for so long.
