“We had quite a few complicated and new ideas, they have all worked. The design stage went so much better than I could have wished.

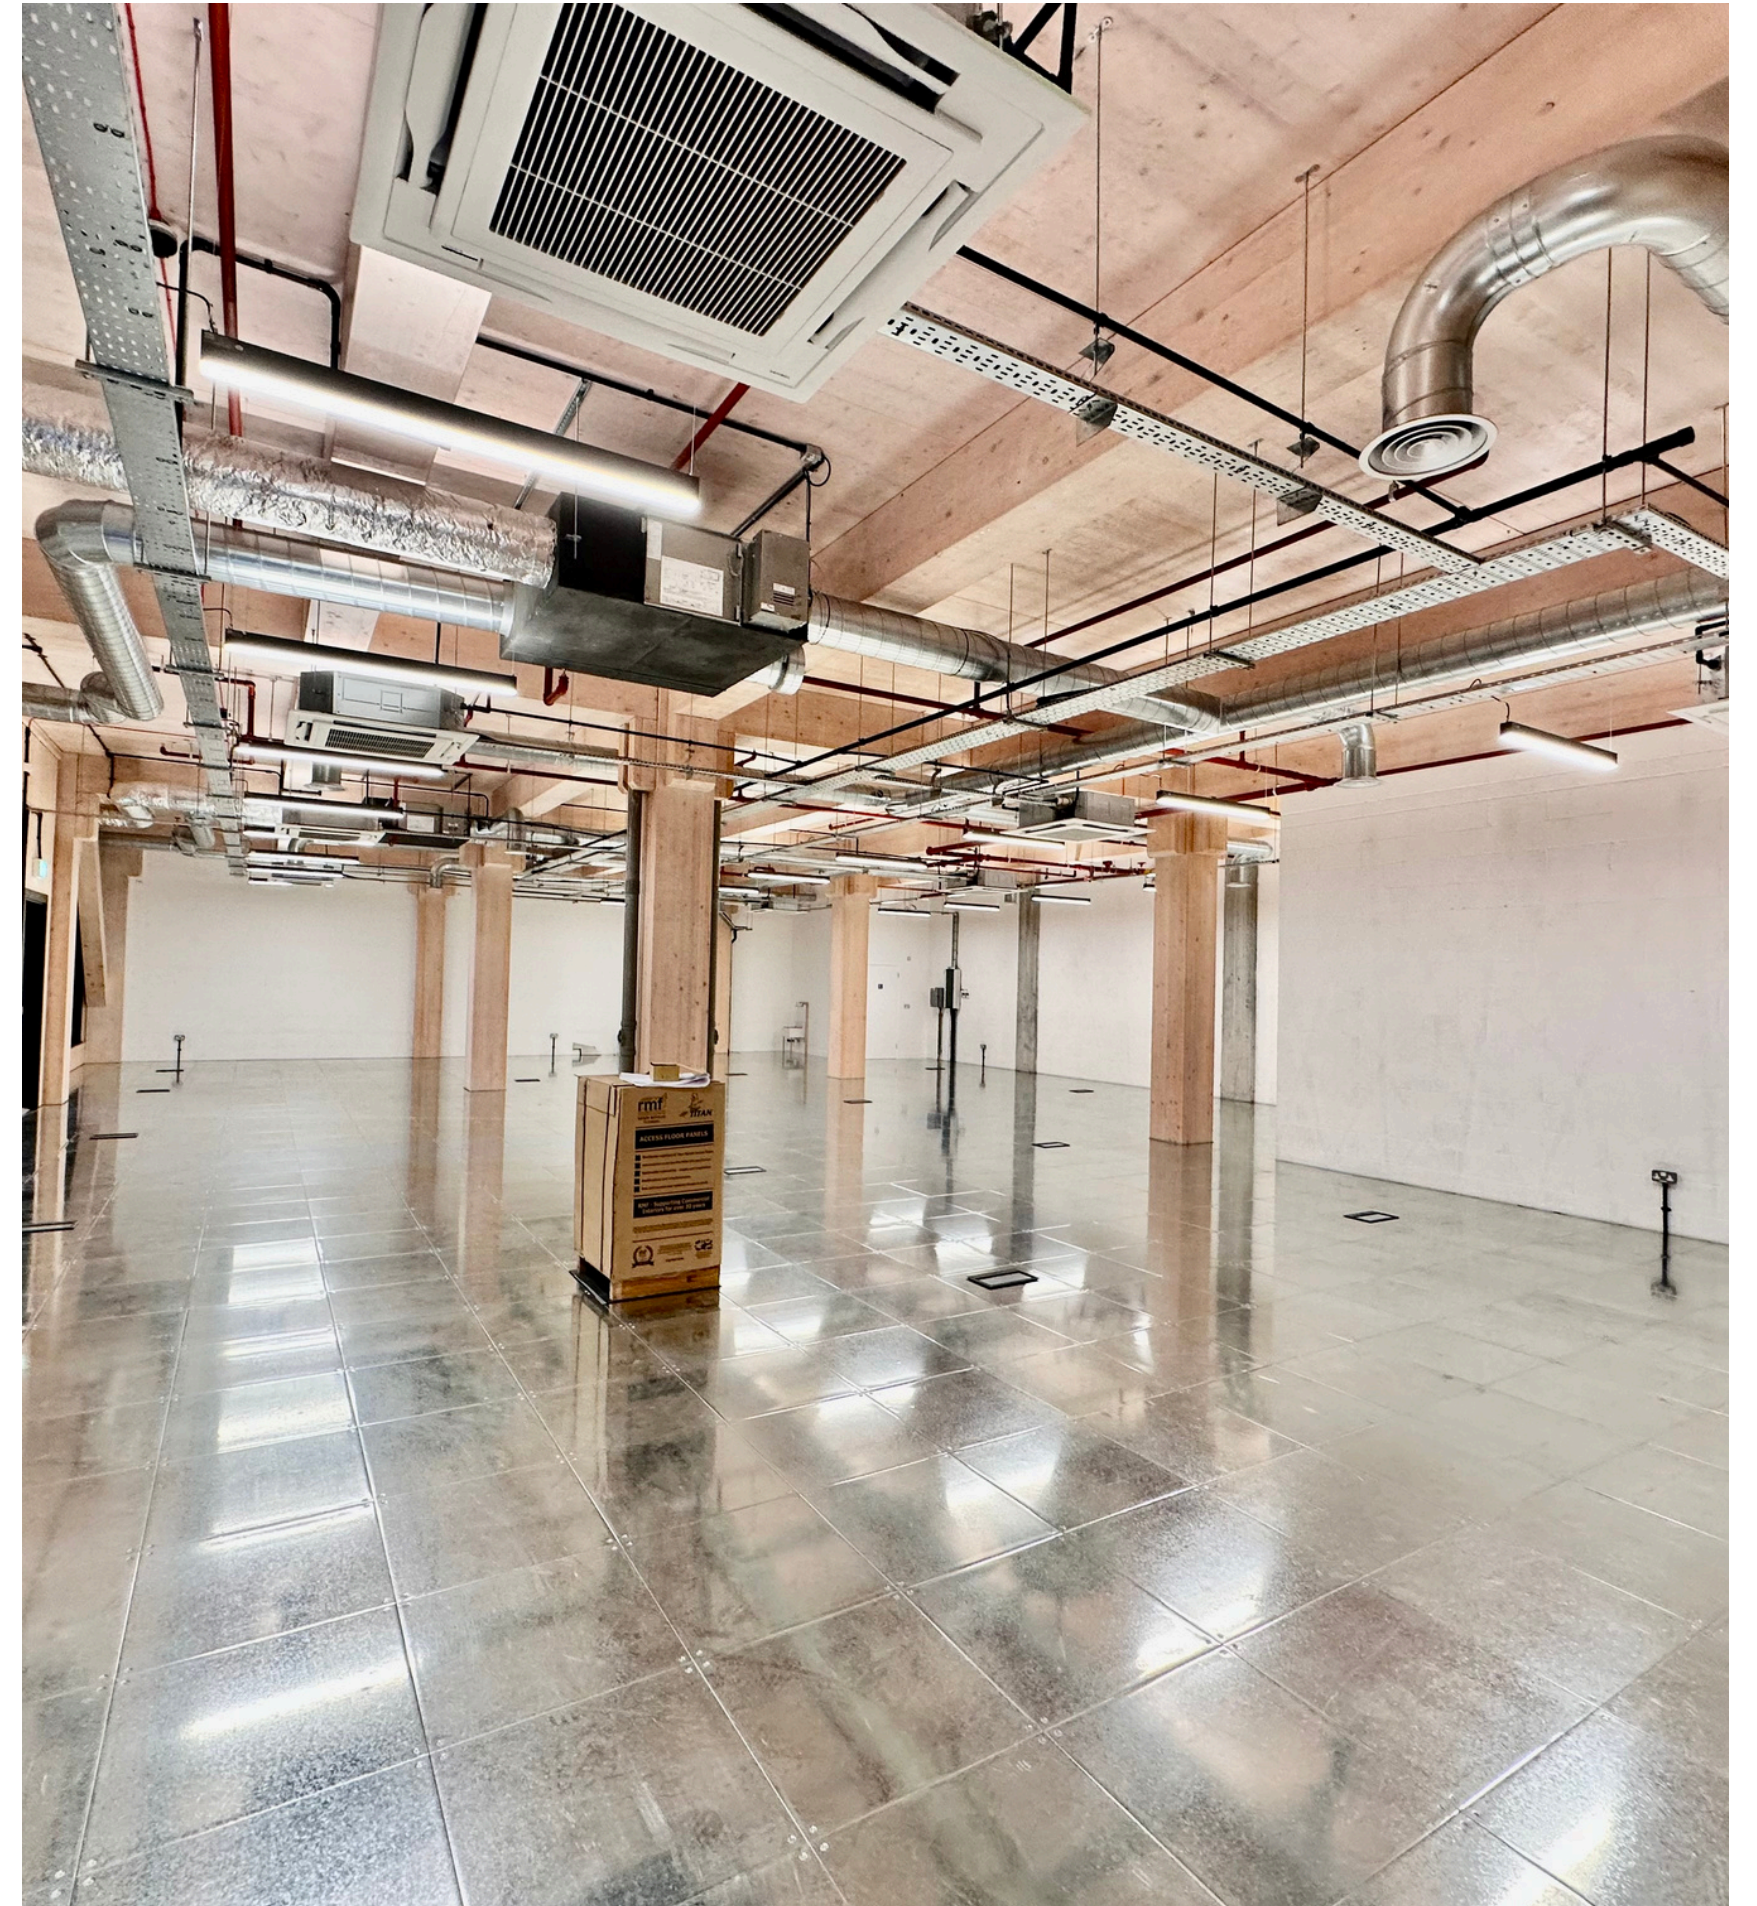

Footprint does not leave you with any problems, they sort them. The end result is a fantastic office and great working environment and somewhere our staff were super-thrilled to move into”

“Footprint have delivered on various difficult projects involving extensive re-configuration and construction within occupied office space, with minimum disruption to business. The management of their own workforce, both sub and nominated contractors, is exemplary. We have been more than satisfied with the numerous fit-out projects undertaken at our Head Office. We would have no hesitation in engaging Footprint for future projects.”
