IONNA

Biography

IONNA is a synth pop duo from Richmond, Virginia. Co-writers / producers Soraya Teschner and Ross Wright create a cinematic sonic blend of 70's disco melodies, 80's synth textures, and modern indie dance, invoking artists like Kate Bush, Tame Impala, Cyndi Lauper, and the xx.

Their debut album, "IONNAVERSE", released in October 2025, takes listeners on a journey of reinvention with the title character - an alien cyborg - as she learns how to be human. The album made the Newlin Prize shortlist for RVA's 2025 Album of the Year.

When IONNA takes the stage, they perform with infectious energy, interactive moments, and original visuals. Everyone is invited to be a part of the IONNAVERSE.
