ARRRtworks

Privacy Policy

Last updated: 11 October 2026

1. Who We Are

ARRRtworks is an independent, collector-led art initiative based in Belgium, dedicated to Modern & Post-War Art.

The person responsible for processing personal data through this website is:

Johan Naudts
ARRRtworks - Private Art Collector
Belgium
Email: info@arrrtworks.com

2. Information We Collect

When you contact us through our website, we may collect:

- Your name and email address.
- Your telephone number, if provided.
- The subject and content of your message.
- Photographs and information about artworks you wish to offer.
- Other information you voluntarily share with us.

Our website hosting provider may also process technical information, such as IP addresses and browser information, to operate and secure the website.

3. How We Use Your Information

We process the information you provide in order to:

- Respond to enquiries and requests.
- Discuss potential purchases or sales of artworks.
- Evaluate artworks submitted for consideration.
- Maintain relevant correspondence.
- Fulfil applicable legal obligations.

Depending on the circumstances, the legal basis is our legitimate interest in handling enquiries and correspondence, taking steps at your request before a potential transaction, or compliance with a legal obligation.

We do not use your contact information for unsolicited marketing or newsletters.

4. Sharing and Storage of Information

We treat your personal information confidentially and do not sell it to third parties.

We use service providers to operate our website and correspondence, including Webflow for website hosting and form submissions and our email service providers. These providers may process personal data in order to deliver those services.

Some personal data may be processed outside the European Economic Area. Where required, such transfers are subject to applicable data-protection safeguards.

Images submitted through our forms may be stored using unique file links. These links are not access-restricted: anyone who obtains a link may be able to view the corresponding image. Please avoid including sensitive personal information in the images you upload.

5. Data Retention

We keep personal information only for as long as reasonably necessary for the purposes described in this policy.

Enquiries and correspondence are retained for the time needed to respond and manage relevant follow-up. Information relating to completed transactions may be kept longer where required by applicable legal obligations or to establish, exercise or defend legal claims.

Information that is no longer required will be deleted or securely disposed of.

6. Your Rights

Subject to the conditions of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), you may have the right to:

- Access your personal data.
- Request correction of inaccurate information.
- Request deletion of your personal data.
- Restrict or object to certain processing.
- Request data portability where applicable.
- Withdraw consent where processing is based on consent.

To exercise your rights, please contact info@arrrtworks.com.

You also have the right to lodge a complaint with the Belgian Data Protection Authority: www.dataprotectionauthority.be.

7. Cookies and Website Technologies

Our website may use technical technologies necessary for its operation, security and performance. Where non-essential cookies or tracking technologies are used, we will provide the required information and seek consent when applicable law requires it.

8. Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy to reflect changes to our website, services or legal obligations. The latest version will be available on this page.
