	the entrant. Entrants should direct any request to access, update or correct information to the Promoter. All entries become the property of the Promoter. • In the event of war, industrial action, terrorism, pandemic, state of emergency, disaster, or any other event beyond the reasonable control of the Promoter, the Promoter reserves the right to cancel, terminate, modify, or suspend the competition or suspend or modify a prize. • If a prize (or part of a prize) is unavailable, the Promoter, in its discretion, reserves the right to substitute the prize (or that part of the prize) with a prize of the equal value and/or specification. • Winners should obtain their own independent financial advice in relation to any tax liability that may arise because of their participation in the Competition. • The Promoter reserves the right to disqualify any entrant, finalist, or winner without compensation if in the reasonable opinion of the Promoter the entrant, finalist or winner engages or has engaged in conduct that would negatively affect the reputation of, or bring the Promoter, its brands, businesses, or the Competition into disrepute or otherwise.
Selection of finalists:	• Up to 32 finalists ("Finalist") will be selected by a judging panel appointed by the Promoter ("Judging Panel"), based on their original recipe, responses to questions and if required, verbal interviews with the Competition's Culinary Educator or other person nominated by the Promoter. • Finalists will be given the opportunity to attend the program in Melbourne ("Melbourne Event") between 31 January 2027 and 3 February 2027 (or other dates as may be advised by the Promoter). The Melbourne Event may be cancelled or rescheduled for reasons or circumstances outside of the control of the Promoter. • At the Melbourne Event, Finalists will take part in Master Classes with chefs, dine at the Mentor Chef's or recommended restaurant, and participate in a cook-off on the final day. • The Melbourne Event includes: - a return economy class airfare from the Finalist's Australian or New Zealand capital city/closest airport to Melbourne airport (if required); - airport transfers within Melbourne and competition-related transport in Melbourne; - set meals from breakfast on 31 January 2027 through to breakfast on 4 February 2027;

	- meals and accommodation for those arriving on Saturday 30 January 2027 will be provided; and - four nights' accommodation, twin share from 31 January 2027 to 4 February 2027, at venues to be confirmed. • Airfare is not redeemable for cash. Promoter will use best efforts to ensure that Finalist's dietary requirements are accommodated but cannot guarantee that this will be the case. • Finalists are solely responsible for obtaining and providing travel documents and visas for international travel into Australia if required. Finalists who are unable to gain legal entry to Australia are automatically disqualified. Travel insurance is recommended but is at the Finalist's cost and discretion. • If the Finalist is from Victoria, then the Melbourne Event does not include airfare however transport expenses and/or parking will be provided. Spending money, additional meals, insurance and all other ancillary costs are not included. • If a Finalist does not confirm their intention to attend the Melbourne Event by 5pm AEST on 15 November 2026 they will forfeit the opportunity to participate, and an alternative Finalist will be selected in their place. If that next selected Finalist does not confirm attendance within 24 hours of phone notification, then they will forfeit the opportunity to participate and this process will continue until either a Finalist is determined or 15 December 2026, whichever occurs first. • If for any reason a Finalist does not attend the Melbourne Event, at the time stipulated by the Promoter, then they will forfeit the opportunity to attend the Melbourne Event and eligibility for any prize, without compensation.
Determination of winners:	• The best Finalist, as selected by the Judging Panel at the Melbourne Event, will be determined to be the overall winner, and will win the major prize. The next three best Finalists will be awarded a minor prize each. • The prize winners will be determined on a combination of their responses to the questions on the application form, and their aptitude during the Master Classes at the Melbourne Event. Their aptitude will be judged by the Judging Panel based on observations of the Finalists, comments made by the Master Class hosts and participation in the industry networking sessions. The winner announcement will take place on 3 February 2027 at the awards dinner.
