By Laurel Deegan • 11 December 2017

This week we're pleased to be able to tell you about one of our newest clients, Reception Academy.

About Reception Academy

Reception Academy, based in the heart of London, offer vocational training to people with a desire to start a career in hospitality and provide hotels with skilled staff across all departments. Reception Academy believe that passion, hard work and a solid basic knowledge will give everyone the opportunity to be successful.

The company was founded after it became clear that people were missing out on opportunities due to their lack of experience, knowledge and skills. Reception Academy created the Hotel Receptionist Training Course to give passionate and driven individuals the chance to start their hospitality career.

With a high success rate, many of their graduates have gained employment within the hospitality industry upon completing the course. They provide a platform allowing graduates and employers to connect. Reception Academy are acknowledged by over 800 hotels and currently have graduates working in some of the top hotels including The Ritz, Hilton, Marriott, and Park Plaza. 95% of graduates go on to work in their chosen job role.
