Revenue Growth

Wave is focused on building revenue for our clients. As a result, this has prompted new services that address every aspect of the sales funnel, resulting in faster growth, better partnerships and support for larger regions.

Overview

One of the most successful specialized Inside Sales roles is the Sales Development Representative, who represent's the company's brand to potential customers, and their responsiveness and professionalism can positively impact the company's reputation.

Challenge

Sales Development Representatives (SDRs) have become an essential role for any organization looking to grow their sales pipeline. However, the resource burden of costly recruitment, training, infrastructure, employee benefits and management can pull resources away from core business functions.

Solution

Outsourcing with Wave provides businesses with dedicated Sales Development Representatives (SDR's) with a straightforward subscription agreement.

Brands choose Wave for its controlled costs and expert management of inside revenue teams, providing complete transparency and predictability in pipeline development.

Benefits

Leveraging our experience managing high-performing inside teams, proven playbooks and strategies, your dedicated Sales Development Representatives (SDRs) connect with prospects and qualify leads for your senior salespeople, increasing productivity.

Engagement

Contracted Sales Development Representatives (SDRs) work alongside your in-house team to synergistically generate pipeline, manage prospects and promote your business. With dedicated inside sales personnel supporting your senior salespeople, there is no confusion, conflict or brand erosion.
