There is One
Who stands between God and man
Crucified
But raised back to life again

He's given Himself for ransom
All our sins atoned
And now our lives forever
To Him it all belongs

For Christ alone we lay down our lives
For this gospel until the end of time
All this is for Christ alone

Behold the Lamb
Whose scars intercede for me
Son of Man
Exalted as the High King

He's given Himself for ransom
All our sins atoned
And now our lives forever
To Him it all belongs

For Christ alone we lay down our lives
For this gospel until the end of time
All this is for Christ alone

For Christ alone we lay down our lives
For this gospel until the end of time
All this is for Christ alone

For Christ alone
For Christ alone
For Christ alone
For Christ alone

The firstborn from the dead
Is coming back again
Riding in upon a cloud
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Those other gods are lies
Idols who aren't alive
But there's One who wears the crown
Eyes will see and knees will bow

The firstborn from the dead
Is coming back again
Riding in upon a cloud
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Those other gods are lies
Idols who aren't alive
But there's One who wears the crown
Eyes will see and knees will bow

The firstborn from the dead
Is coming back again
Riding in upon a cloud
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Those other gods are lies
Idols who aren't alive
But there's One who wears the crown
Eyes will see and knees will bow

The Lamb has overcome
Testify of His blood
When we hear that trumpet sound
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Glory to God the Son
The victory's been won
We await Your coming now
Eyes will see and knees will bow

For Christ alone we lay down our lives
For this gospel until the end of time
All this is for Christ alone

For Christ alone we lay down our lives
For this gospel until the end of time
All this is for Christ alone

The firstborn from the dead
Is coming back again
Riding in upon a cloud
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Those other gods are lies
Idols who aren't alive
But there's One who wears the crown
Eyes will see and knees will bow

The Lamb has overcome
Testify of His blood
When we hear that trumpet sound
Eyes will see and knees will bow

Glory to God the Son
The victory's been won
We await Your coming now
Eyes will see and knees will bow
