From Piedmont to Plymouth: God is at Work

Fall is here, and we're excited about what's ahead at Piedmont Mill! Throughout October, we'll be walking through the book of Daniel in our Sunday morning gatherings. As we study Daniel's life and his faithfulness to God while living in exile, we'll be reminded of what it means to faithfully follow Christ in our own world. Be sure to pick up a Bible reading guide to follow along with the sermons throughout the month.

On Wednesday, October 28th, Mill Students will be serving at PERC, our local food pantry. If you'd like to jump in and serve alongside them, please reach out to Pastor Jason. The ladies will also be gathering for Bible study on Thursday, October 29th, at 6:00 p.m. downstairs in the fellowship hall. For more information, please contact Ni O'Brien.

Finally, we want to celebrate some exciting news from Kings Cross Church in Plymouth, Massachusetts. For the past three years, Piedmont Mill has supported this church plant financially and by sending mission teams to help with their annual back-to-school outreach. The road has been challenging, but God has been faithful. On Sunday, October 18th, Kings Cross will hold its first official Sunday morning worship service! This is something only God can do, and you've been part of it. Whether you traveled to Plymouth or faithfully gave through Piedmont Mill, you've helped make this possible. What a joy to see a new church taking root in the New England area!
