On September 28, 2026, IBEW Local 400 will be hosting its 7th Annual Benevolent Fund Golf Outing at the Pine Barrens Golf Club in Jackson, NJ. Proceeds raised from this event will go directly to provide scholarships to the children of Local 400 members as well as to help support local charities of Monmouth & Ocean Counties.

The Pine Barrens Golf Club is a world-class golf destination with an expansive clubhouse, practice facility, Pro Shop, locker room, and private restaurant. Those in attendance can look forward to a barbecue lunch, vast open bar selection, premium cigars, cocktail hour, and buffet dinner. Additionally, this 18-hole event will feature a long drive and closest to the pin competition, giveaways, gift raffles, and much more.

About IBEW Local 400 Benevolent Fund

The IBEW Local 400 Benevolent Fund is a 501(3)(c) tax-deductible trust that raises money to provide scholarships for the children of IBEW Local 400 members as well as to support local charitable organizations in Monmouth and Ocean Counties. 100% of the donations made to this fund go directly toward scholarship funding and charitable contributions to enhance our community.

About IBEW Local 400

IBEW Local 400 has been providing the electrical workforce in Monmouth and Ocean counties since 1917. As residents and neighbors of the community, Local 400 established the Benevolent Fund to help further the education of the children of its members and support local charities with financial donations. Through the combined goals of education and charity, the Local 400 Benevolent Fund will help to strengthen the community.
