ABOUT YOUTH EMPOWERMENT AND SUPPORT SERVICES (YESS)

Who We Are

MISSION

To collaboratively build a network of care to ensure youth get the expert help they need, when they need it, and where they need it.

VISION

A more connected, holistic, and lower-barrier system for youth in crisis.

VALUES

- Courage to be honest, vulnerable, and curious.
- Connection with all stakeholders, both internal and external, to establish trust, empathy, and understanding.
- Commitment to lead with intention, to make a meaningful difference, and be accountable in all we do.

What We Do

Established in 1981, YESS is the only 24/7 youth support centre in the Edmonton Metro area providing youth with access to safe sleeping and trauma-informed programs. We offer a comprehensive approach that involves more than a place to sleep, but de-escalation, targeted planning, and a transparent and collaborative approach to youth care.

24/7 SHELTER AND TRANSITIONAL/ BRIDGE HOUSING

Our 16-bed shelter is a safe, secure, and immediate place to stay for youth aged 15 to 21. The shelter provides beds for sleeping, basic needs like food, clothing, showers and laundry, school supplies, and packed lunches for school or work.

Our transitional/bridge housing program provides long-term support to assist youth with stable, autonomous living. This is a safe place for all youth, with support and access to staff.

PROGRAMS AND RESOURCES

We offer daytime access to primary medical health care, mental health support through our Wellness Integration Team, connections to housing, and other critical resources for youth aged 15 to 24. This space provides basic needs and shelter from the elements in a safe, welcoming place.

A NEW CEO, A NEW CHAPTER FOR YESS

Hello friends,

If we were to summarize this past year at YESS, it might be “growing through what we’re going through.” It’s been a year of movement - sometimes forward, sometimes sideways, occasionally backward - but always with intention. And most importantly, always with youth at the centre of it all.

At YESS, change isn’t just something we endure, it’s something we lean into. It has been a year of digging in: economic uncertainty, internal adjustments, shifting needs, and the ongoing work of supporting young people as they navigate trauma. But through it all, we’ve kept our eyes fixed on our strategic plan - continued investment in services and programs built around support, connection, and relationships.

Our amazing team? Unstoppable. We’ve strengthened our operations and future capacity with strategic additions. These additions are more than hires, they’re milestones in a bigger vision to keep youth care sustainable and future focused. Calculated bold steps forward to help build the foundation we need to keep showing up for youth with the strength, creativity, and support they deserve.

Thanks to the support of our donors, funders, and partners, we’ve made meaningful progress: expanding access, evolving programming, and co-creating safe, inclusive spaces where youth in crisis are seen, heard, and supported. Your trust allows us to respond with compassion and creativity, even when the path forward is complex.

As we look ahead, we’re excited to keep growing together. Our “Tap into YESS” series, donor luncheons, and emerging events are creating new opportunities for connection, and we know it’s strong relationships that will continue to carry this work forward.

A big shoutout also goes out to our awesome Board of Directors. Your steady support, and tireless dedication have been key in steering us through this year’s twists and turns. You help shape the vision, anchor the mission, and keep us grounded - all while cheering us on every step of the way. Thank you championing the work, and helping make YESS stronger, bolder, and braver every day. We’re so lucky to have you on this journey with us.

So here’s to you; our incredible community of supporters. Thank you for walking with us, believing in us, and showing up for the incredible young people we serve. We couldn’t do this without you, and we wouldn’t want to.

LETTER FROM BOARD CHAIR, STEVEN EWASKIW

This past year has been one of significant transition and renewal for YESS. As we reflect on all that has unfolded, we do so with deep appreciation for our past and strong confidence in our future.

We bid farewell to Margo Long, our outgoing CEO, whose leadership and vision have been instrumental in shaping YESS into the organization it is today. Margo's unwavering dedication to creating a safe and inclusive space for vulnerable youth has left an indelible legacy, and we thank her for her years of extraordinary service. Her impact will continue to be felt for years to come.

Following an exhaustive and thoughtful search process, we were thrilled to welcome Corey Mowles as the new CEO of YESS. Corey brings a dynamic blend of strategic insight, community focus, and a deep commitment to youth wellness. His leadership has already begun to energize our teams and renew our focus on innovation, collaboration, and long-term impact. With Corey at the helm, we are entering a new chapter - one where we are more equipped than ever to meet the complex needs of the youth we serve.

Looking ahead, I am filled with optimism for what's possible. We remain committed to listening deeply to the voices of youth, building trauma-informed systems of care, and working closely with partners across the community to break down barriers and create real change. YESS is evolving—not just as a service provider, but as a connector, an advocate, and a champion for youth who deserve every opportunity to thrive.

None of this work would be possible without the incredible support of our community. I want to extend my deepest thanks to our volunteers, who give their time, energy, and hearts so generously. Whether supporting daily programming, lending expertise behind the scenes, or showing up at events, you are the lifeblood of YESS, and we are so grateful for your commitment.

I also want to acknowledge and thank our donors—individuals, foundations, and organizations whose generosity powers every step we take. Your belief in our mission makes it possible for us to provide vital supports and build a future of hope and possibility for every young person who walks through our doors.

Finally, I'd like to express sincere appreciation to my fellow Board members. Your strategic guidance, thoughtful stewardship, and shared passion for this work have been a constant source of strength.

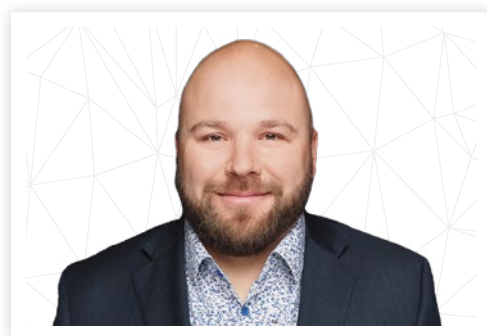

Thank you all for being part of this journey. Together, we are not only responding to the immediate needs of youth—we are reimagining what's possible for them. The future of YESS is bright, and I'm honored to be a part of it.

With gratitude,

Steven Ewaskiw

WHAT WE OFFER AT YESS: OUR PROGRAMS AND RESOURCES

YOUTH SUPPORT CENTRE

Heading into its 3rd year, the Youth Support Centre (YSC), has continued to provide a centralized place for youth in crisis to get immediate support, stabilization, and assessment. The YSC ensures youth have 24/7 access to shelter and wrap-around services. It's an immediate intervention that is ultimately the entry point for youth experiencing homelessness to the network of community supports.

Through the YSC, we bridge the gap between youth in crisis and access to physical, emotional, cultural, and mental health resources, ensuring that youth receive the right, holistic support they so desperately need.

GRAHAM'S PLACE

Our transitional/bridge housing program, Graham's Place, established as part of the Youth Support Centre, offers a safe and supportive environment for youth aged 15 to 21 who are ready to work on their goals and prepare for community integration. The program addresses housing instability and related challenges while fostering personal growth.

Graham's Place serves as a critical stepping stone for youth, enabling them to transition successfully into stable, independent living while addressing their unique challenges and fostering growth in a holistic and supportive environment.

WELLNESS INTEGRATION TEAM

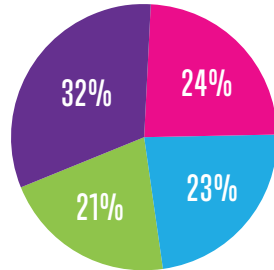

Our on-site support practitioners and staff provide trauma-informed crisis stabilization and mental health education, to support front-line youth workers with healing practices.

This team has developed programming that is rooted in culture, identity, and spirituality to support young people. Our staff provide youth with access to mental health care and assessments, where unique needs are identified and tailored plans are created for specialized care.

CLIENT CORNER:

ANIEL'S JOURNEY WITH YESS

When Aniel first walked through the doors of YESS, he was looking for more than just a place to stay, he was looking for a fresh start. His journey, like so many others, was filled with challenges, but it was also filled with resilience, growth, and hope. This is Aniel's story.

GROWING UP IN EDMONTON

Aniel was born in 1985 at the Royal Alexandra Hospital in Edmonton and grew up in the Mill Woods neighborhood. His early years were typical, but things began to change when he entered junior high.

"In my last year at TD Baker, I found myself getting into conflicts with everyone, teachers and students alike. At home, life was shifting as well. My mother had remarried, and I didn't agree with her choice in a partner. I started hanging out with older, more troublesome people, and that led me down a difficult path."

By the time he was 14, Aniel was struggling. He was couch surfing, disconnected from school, and engaging in substance use. The instability of his situation left him vulnerable, and he soon realized he had nowhere left to turn.

FINDING SUPPORT AT YESS

"That is when I found YESS, not by choice, but by necessity. I had nowhere to go, no food to eat, barely any clothes. At that age, living the lifestyle I had chosen, I easily could have ended up a statistic."

YESS provided Aniel with the essentials: food, clothing, and a safe space. But more importantly, it offered him a path forward. Through partner programs and the unwavering support of staff, Aniel began to rebuild his life.

"This took time, and I had to be ready. Many times, I left on my own, only to return when I had burned bridges again. But the doors at YESS were always open. Whether I was there for a day or a week, they never shut me out. The staff understood the severity of what we were going through, and they were always there."

LOOKING BACK WITH GRATITUDE

Now, at 39, Aniel reflects on how far he has come. Life hasn't always been easy, but he is proud of the journey he has taken.

"Being able to find my way with the help of YESS allowed me to still be here to write this. Every day, I wake up with gratitude. I have lost so many people along the way, but I am still here. Without places like YESS, I might not be."

APPRECIATION CORNER: THANK YOU TO OUR STAFF AND VOLUNTEERS

As we reflect on the past year at YESS, we are filled with deep gratitude for the extraordinary commitment, compassion, and resilience shown by our staff and volunteers.

Every day, you bring our mission to life: creating a safe, welcoming space where youth facing difficult challenges can find support, understanding, and hope. Your tireless efforts, whether on the frontlines or behind the scenes, ensure that young people have access to the resources, guidance, and care they need to move toward brighter futures.

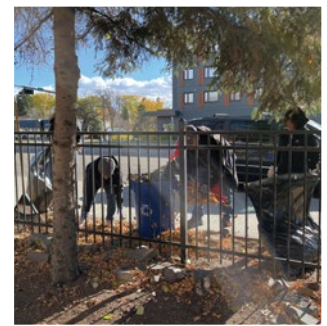

To our dedicated staff: thank you for your professionalism, innovation, and unwavering belief in the potential of every youth who walks through our doors. Your expertise and heartfelt commitment are the foundation of our work and the reason we can meet the complex and evolving needs of those we serve.

To our incredible volunteers: thank you for generously sharing your time, talents, and energy. Whether providing meals, offering mentorship, supporting events, or helping in countless other ways, you are an essential part of the YESS community. Your generosity and compassion help create a network of care that extends far beyond our walls.

Together, you are the driving force behind our successes and the heart of our organization. We are truly grateful for each of you, and we look forward to continuing this important work alongside you in the year ahead.

YESS IN THE COMMUNITY

THANK YOU: DONORS AND COMMUNITY PARTNERS

To our donors and community partners, the work we do would not be possible without your generosity and vision. Your support is the foundation upon which we build hope, opportunity, and transformation for the young people we serve.

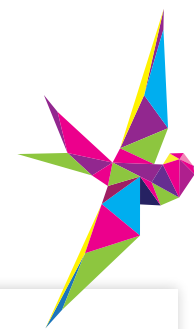

To each of you, whether you are a long-time supporter or a first-time donor, we offer our deepest thanks. Your commitment makes it possible for YESS to provide vital services, safe spaces, and compassionate care to youth facing some of life's most difficult challenges. Through your contributions, you are not only meeting immediate needs but also investing in long-term change, empowering youth to move toward brighter, more stable futures.

Your belief in our mission and in the potential of young people fuels our work every day. With your partnership, we have been able to reach more youth in meaningful and lasting ways.

On behalf of the entire YESS community, thank you for your generosity, trust, and dedication. Together, we are building a stronger, more compassionate community where every young person has the opportunity to thrive.
