VISION Police Chiefs united for a secure Blue Pacific

MISSION

Empowering Chiefs to connect, collaborate, and lead Pacific Policing excellence now and in the future

GOALS

GOAL ONE: Looking in

To provide a forum for Chiefs to connect with each other

Harnessing the collective strength and wisdom of our Chiefs to address our shared policing challenges

GOAL TWO: Looking out

Amplify the voice of Chiefs out into the Pacific region

The voice of Chiefs is heard by leaders, partners, and donors, and is acted upon

GOAL THREE: Looking ahead

Grow Pacific Policing Leadership capability

Growing our leaders today, and into the future

WHAT WILL HAPPEN

The PICP will provide a space for Chiefs to:

- Connect, learn from, and share ideas and thinking
- Share experiences of current challenges and successes in policing, locally and regionally
- Create a support network among Chiefs
- Discuss and agree their collective regional and sub-regional priorities for Pacific policing

The PICP will bring Chiefs together to consider the range of issues that are being faced by Police forces across the region and the various regional Policing and security initiatives.

This will enable a coordinated and coherent expression of Chiefs' priorities to be communicated to leaders, partners, and donors.

The PICP will work to strengthen Pacific policing leadership

- Support new Chiefs by providing an induction to PICP and access to mentors and experienced Chiefs to support leadership development
- Create opportunities for the leaders of tomorrow to operate at a more strategic level, including the engagement of senior Police in the work of the PICP
- Support the equal and full participation of women in Policing

ANNUAL CYCLE

Pre-conference
The Secretariat will keep abreast of trends, developments, and initiatives relevant to Pacific policing for Chiefs' awareness and understanding.

Conference
Chiefs agree regional priorities for the year ahead and share this information.

Post-conference
The Secretariat will keep Chiefs updated on progress on identified priorities and provide a consolidated report at the next conference.
