

BBA June 2026 Highlights

From the President:

UK's first National Honour recipient for Blockchain

It was another incredibly busy month for us at the BBA.

Firstly, I am pleased to share that the BBA's 9th Blockchain International Scientific Conference ISC2027 will be held at the University of East London in March 2027. Several universities offered to host ISC2027, and we were pleased to accept UEL's invitation. The Call for Abstracts have been announced, and we look forward to receiving your abstracts HERE.

Blockchain and digital asset associations from 52 countries will convene at BAF's 6th Annual Summit, to be held on 9 September. Preparations are well underway, and the BBA, as host, welcomes BAF members to the Summit. More details HERE.

On 9 June, I delivered a keynote at the 'Blockchain Future Symposium', hosted by Ulster University, Northern Ireland. I was delighted to catch up with our Fellow and BBA's Regional Advisor for Northern Ireland, Professor Kevin Curran FBBA. More details HERE.

The Bank of England has published its Stablecoin Framework. Earlier this year, in consultation with our members, BBA submitted its response to the Bank's Stablecoin consultation. More details HERE.

The FCA has also published its crypto regulatory framework today. Over the years, BBA contributed to several of the FCA's discussion papers and consultations, details of which can be found HERE.

In 2018, BBA Fellow Professor Rob Campbell FBBA published one of the world's first frameworks on Post-Quantum Blockchains. At the June BBA Member Forum, Prof Campbell joined us alongside our members and advisors and we had some excellent contributions on the future of Blockchain, and its applications. More details HERE.

QS World University rankings are out and we were delighted to see that The JBBA is indexed and available in the libraries of 481 of the world's Top 500 universities.

More details HERE.

Until next time,

Professor Naseem Naqvi MBE FBBA
President, The BBA

Celebrating the UK's Crypto Innovation

On 16 June, we joined the "Celebrating the UK's Crypto Innovation" reception at Westminster. The UK's ambition to lead in digital assets will depend on more than momentum. It requires evidence, rigour, and credible regulation; the standards we have been championing since 2017.
