GLOBAL INSTITUTE

CALL FOR PRESENTERS
20–21 APRIL 2027 / AUCKLAND

AILEARN AOTEAROA 2027

Share your practice at AILearn Aotearoa 2027.

We're looking for New Zealand teachers and school leaders who are using AI in real classrooms and schools to lead a breakout session. If you've tried something, learned from it and can help others do the same, we want to hear from you.

AT A GLANCE

NETWORKING MIXER
Tue 20 April 2027, 5:30–7:30pm
Icehouse Ventures, Parnell

CONFERENCE
Wed 21 April 2027, 9:00am–3:00pm
B:Hive, Smales Farm, Takapuna

AUDIENCE
Up to 200 NZ principals, senior and middle leaders, and classroom teachers

PROGRAMME
Opening and closing keynotes, 24 educator-led breakouts across Leadership and Teaching streams, and a student voice showcase

FORMAT
In-person only. April school holidays, so no relief cover needed.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR

50 MIN

Each breakout runs for 50 minutes with about 25 people. Choose the stream that fits you.

FORMATS
Workshop, talk with discussion, co-presented session or panel

STREAM
Teaching

Classroom teachers focused on a learning area, year level, group of learners or practice.

WE SELECT FOR
Real practice, a clear focus, practical takeaways, Aotearoa context, safe and ethical use, and a fresh perspective

STREAM
Leadership

Principals, senior and middle leaders on policy, workload, data, people, community or safety.

THE ONE RULE
Share your practice. Never sell a product or service.

WHAT PRESENTERS GET

- + Discounted ticket to the mixer and conference day
- + Presenter badge and a listing in the programme
- + Koha
- + Slide and session templates
- + Optional coaching to shape your session

Your session resources are shared with attendees afterwards, and breakouts are not recorded to protect your IP.
