

INTUITION IS A SKILL, NOT A GIFT

Welcome to my energy, and thank you for the time you are putting into finding an aligned fit for your event and group. I encourage you to take a moment to pause and drop into your body, so that it can be an intuitive experience for you. Below, you will find a generalized outline of my group spaceholding offerings:

WHAT YOUR ROOM GETS

I show up early and I have read your brief. Nobody in your room gets told who they are. Nobody leaves cracked open. I have the training for what happens after a question lands.

WHAT I NEED FROM YOU

Your brief, a headcount, the room, and your theme no less than a week ahead. Everything else I bring. I am based in northern New Jersey and on the road most of the year, in person or virtual.

SEND ME THE BRIEF

I reply within three working days with an outline and a number. If I am not the right fit I will say so, and point you at somebody who is. In many cases I would prefer we meet virtually to ensure our visions align.

WHAT I TALK ABOUT

CAREER AND EDUCATION PATH EXPLORATION

For high school and college students, and the people who run their programs. How to choose a path without being told which one. My journey began in a college career center on an MSW track, so the talk is practical before it is anything else.

ENTREPRENEURSHIP YOUR WAY

For founders and anyone running their own thing. The mental health side of it, the yes and the no inside every decision, and why the portal and funnel version of business is not the only one on offer.

INTUITIVE LIVING

Your yes and your no live in your body. How to hear them, and how to trust them in front of other people. The presentation version of the interactive workshop I run at retreats.

MINDSET SHIFTING

Not a new plan, a new angle on the same one. What to keep, what to let go of, and what it costs. For rooms at the start of something: graduations, launches, grand openings.

RATES & FORMATS

KEYNOTE	Two hours, shaped around your program. Send me the brief and I will come back with an outline.	Starting at $750 plus travel and lodging
ROUNDTABLE OR PANEL	In person or virtual. Any of the four categories, or a mix, alongside your other guests.	Starting at $222 an hour in person $111 an hour virtual
INTUITIVE STRENGTH TRAINING	A workshop, two and a half hours. The first half is the same every time. The second half is built around your theme. Minimum amount of attendees is 5, and maximum is 15.	Starting at $150 per person plus travel and lodging

"Having Amanda as a guest presenter in my group was a privilege and a pleasure. She brought so much joy and wisdom to our women's self-care club. The value of her intuitive strength training exercise was felt and experienced first hand, so grateful!"

MARY GOLDEN

ABOUT ME

I hold an MSW and spent my training years in group treatment and career readiness work, before six years of readings and coaching. Six years of sitting with people in the middle of a change, and not once telling them who they are.

I work one to one across twelve week seasons, run Intuitive Strength Training for retreats and teams, and hosted The Inner Calling Podcast, mostly conversations with other practitioners. The Aligned Way Oracle Deck is in the works, coming in 2027.

I am passionate about building lasting relationships with practitioners I respect and feel confident recommending to clients when they can fill needs I can't. This is often done in person and through The Soul Led Network.
