

DR. JOE WILMOTH

Ph.D.

Dr. Joe Wilmoth is Professor Emeritus and longtime ministry leader helping students integrate Christian faith, academic life, and a lasting sense of purpose.

Location:

Stillwater, OK

Mentoring Strengths:

- Dissertation/Thesis Support
- Stress or Anxiety Management
- Work-Life Balance
- Faith and Spiritual Growth
- Networking

What do you hope to contribute as a mentor?

Integration of faith and academics

What special experiences do you have to contribute?

Collaborative research and publication; training and experience in both academic and faith spheres.

Linkedin

PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dr. Joe Wilmoth is Professor Emeritus of Human Development and Family Science at Mississippi State University whose career has uniquely bridged Christian ministry and higher education. Before entering academia, Joe spent 25 years in vocational ministry and earned both bachelor's and master's degrees in biblical studies.

He later earned his Ph.D. in Human Development and Family Science from Oklahoma State University and built an academic career focused on families, relationships, aging, and the role of religion and spirituality in human flourishing. Throughout his life, Joe has remained passionate about the integration of Christian faith and thoughtful scholarship.

As a mentor, Joe brings decades of experience in ministry, research, teaching, and higher education. He especially enjoys supporting graduate students as they navigate dissertation work, stress and work-life balance, professional relationships, and questions of faith and calling.

UNIVERSITIES ATTENDED

Oklahoma State University
Ph.D. Family Science

Evangel University
M.A. Biblical Studies
B.A. Communication and Biblical Studies

CURRENT OCCUPATION

Professor Emeritus Human Development and Family Science
Mississippi State University