PROFESSIONAL BIO

Fred Kison is a pastor, educator, leadership coach, and former career paramedic whose life and work have centered on helping people navigate questions of faith, identity, leadership, and purpose. With nearly two decades of pastoral ministry experience, Fred has led and revitalized churches, developed leaders, and equipped individuals to understand and live out their Christian faith in practical and meaningful ways.

Before and alongside his work in ministry, Fred served as a paramedic and flight paramedic, providing care in high-pressure environments where leadership, resilience, compassion, and sound decision-making mattered deeply. His diverse background in emergency medicine, pastoral ministry, education, and leadership development gives him a unique ability to connect biblical truth with the realities and challenges of everyday life.

Today, Fred continues his work in education, coaching, and ministry, helping people think more deeply about what they believe and how those beliefs shape the way they live.
