PROFESSIONAL BIO

Dr. Paul Gould is a Professor of Philosophy of Religion and the Director of the Master of Arts in Philosophy of Religion program at Palm Beach Atlantic University. He is also the founder and president of the Two Tasks Institute, an organization dedicated to renewing the Christian voice, conscience, and imagination in contemporary culture.

Dr. Gould is known for helping Christians engage culture with both intellectual rigor and imaginative vision. His speaking combines thoughtful scholarship with practical application, equipping audiences to see Christianity as not only true, but also beautiful and desirable. His scholarship spans philosophy of religion, metaphysics, apologetics, science and faith, and philosophical theology. He previously served as a Visiting Fellow at the Henry Center for Theological Understanding at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School, where he researched the relationship between science and Christian belief.
