ORANGE TOURS

PACKING LIST

We produced this packing list to help make sure you and your crew are ready for a great trip. Start your packing with the Every Trip list, then add the items from the section that matches the trip you're taking. See you out on the water!

1. EVERY TRIP
Pack the Every Trip list first.

2. YOUR TRIP TYPE
Add the section that matches your booking.

3. QUESTIONS?

EVERY TRIP Pack this no matter which trip you're on Everything here comes on every trip. Start with this list, then add the section below that matches your booking.

WEAR ON THE RIVER

- [ ] Swimsuit, or synthetic shorts and a top (no cotton)
- [ ] Shoes that can get wet and stay on, like strap-on sandals or water shoes
- [ ] Sunglasses with a strap
- [ ] Sun shirt or synthetic top
- [ ] Hat (a ball cap fits under a helmet)

BRING ALONG

- [ ] Water bottle with a carabiner to clip it to the boat
- [ ] Personal medications
- [ ] Waterproof sunscreen
- [ ] An EpiPen if you have an allergy that can cause anaphylaxis (required, and tell your guide)

LEAVE AT HOME

- [ ] Cotton clothing
- [ ] Jewelry
- [ ] Crocs and flip-flops, they fly off in the water
- [ ] Valuables

DAY TRIPS Half-day and full-day trips

Day trips need less than most people think. The Every Trip list covers nearly all of it.

ADD FOR A DAY TRIP

- [ ] Spare dry clothes for the takeout
- [ ] A camera, only if it is truly waterproof
- [ ] Synthetic underwear, in case the day calls for a wetsuit

We bring a dry bag for the small stuff. When the water is cold we provide wetsuits and splash tops, plus booties if your shoes won't work. Forgot a sunglass strap? Pick one up at our shop.

LODGE TRIPS Lodge-to-lodge rafting, trail running and hiking

You sleep at a lodge each night, so pack one small kit for the river and one for the lodge.

ON THE RIVER, ADD

- [ ] Extra swimsuits, or shorts and tops
- [ ] Synthetic water-resistant shirt for chilly mornings
- [ ] A second pair of sunglasses
- [ ] Water shoes that strap on, like Chacos, Astrals or Keens (Crocs fall off)
- [ ] Paddling gloves if you plan to kayak
- [ ] Light rain jacket

AT THE LODGE

- [ ] Dry pair of shoes
- [ ] Bug spray
- [ ] Personal hygiene items
- [ ] Comfortable sweatshirt and sweats for mornings
- [ ] Flashlight or headlamp

IF YOU ARE RUNNING OR HIKING THE TRAIL

- [ ] Trail running or hiking shoes
- [ ] Medium daypack for hiking
- [ ] Two pairs of socks per day
- [ ] Moleskin and Tecnu
- [ ] Water shoes for the boat crossing
- [ ] Running vest, hydration pack or CamelBak
- [ ] Trekking poles
- [ ] Extra shirts
- [ ] Pants or tall socks for ticks and poison oak

Using a CPAP? Bring your own batteries. The lodge generator is off from 10 p.m. to 7 a.m.

CAMPING TRIPS Multi-day trips where we set up camp

Keep the river items where you can reach them during the day and pack everything else in your dry bag.

ON THE RIVER, ADD

- [ ] Extra swimsuits, or shorts and tops
- [ ] Paddling gloves if you plan to kayak
- [ ] Synthetic water-resistant shirt for chilly mornings
- [ ] A second pair of sunglasses

IN CAMP

- [ ] Long pants
- [ ] Shirts for camp
- [ ] Rain jacket
- [ ] Sleeping bag, or rent our sleep kit
- [ ] Small pack towel
- [ ] Headlamp or flashlight
- [ ] Personal items, kept to a minimum
- [ ] Shorts
- [ ] Fleece jacket or sweatshirt
- [ ] Shoes for camp, to dry your feet
- [ ] Pack or travel pillow, or rent one
- [ ] Insect repellent
- [ ] Battery pack for your phone

NICE EXTRAS

- [ ] Binoculars, bird watchers go nuts on Idaho trips
- [ ] A beanie for cool evenings
- [ ] Small-ish squirt guns
- [ ] A good book and a sleep mask

Pack light. We hand out a dry bag, or a duffel on fly-in trips, at the meet and greet, and everything you bring goes in it, sleeping bag included. Pack for the length of your trip, not longer.

FISHING TRIPS Guided drift boat and fishing trips

Get your license sorted first. On fishing trips we provide conventional rods, reels and tackle. We don't supply fly fishing gear.

LICENSES AND GEAR

- [ ] Oregon fishing license with a salmon and steelhead tag (Rogue)
- [ ] Idaho fishing license, sold in Riggins or online (Idaho)
- [ ] Your own fly rod, reel and flies if you fly fish
- [ ] Your own rod and tackle if you want to fish on a rafting trip

ADD FOR A FISHING TRIP

- [ ] Rubber boots or waterproof footwear
- [ ] Full rain gear
- [ ] Warm jacket and long underwear
- [ ] Two pairs of long pants
- [ ] Long-sleeve shirts
- [ ] Polarized sunglasses
- [ ] Flashlight
- [ ] Insect repellent
- [ ] Warm socks
- [ ] Personal hygiene items

Fishing days start early and run late, so bring a warm layer for both ends. On lodge-based fishing trips we give you a dry bag for the lodge and a small bag for the boat. On camping-based fishing trips, add the Camping Trips list.

ROW YOUR OWN AND RENTALS Self-guided trips with your own or rented gear

On a self-guided trip you're the outfitter. Row Your Own guests bring their own boats. Renters, check what comes with your rental first.

BOAT AND SAFETY

- [ ] Raft with a rowing frame
- [ ] 4 oars, 2 for rowing and 2 spares
- [ ] Spare oar lock
- [ ] Throw rope
- [ ] Raft repair kit
- [ ] Pump
- [ ] Sand stake with mallet
- [ ] Your own straps
- [ ] Quality PFD for each person (helmets advised)
- [ ] Small first aid kit for your boat

CAMP AND PERSONAL

- [ ] Personal dry bags
- [ ] Tent, sleeping bag and pad
- [ ] Cot, if you use one
- [ ] Camp chairs
- [ ] Your own drinks and snacks
- [ ] Refillable water bottle
- [ ] 5-gallon water jug for personal use
- [ ] Toilet paper, if you rent a river toilet
- [ ] Firepan (required on the Main and Lower Salmon and in Hells Canyon)
- [ ] Ice for your cooler
- [ ] A way to get your gear to the river and home

Shuttles - Row Your Own guests set up their own. On the Main Salmon we suggest All Rivers Shuttle Service out of White Bird, and on the Rogue, Whitewater Cowboys runs vehicle shuttles.
Rentals - Rental rafts come with oars or paddles and PFDs, and multi-day packages add a pump, repair kit, dry bags and a cooler. Firepans, extra dry bags, wetsuits and more can be added when you book.
