US OPEN PICKLEBALL CHAMPIONSHIPS

REGISTRATION & WEATHER REFUND INSURANCE POLICY

EVENT DETAILS:

The 2027 US Open will be held April 16-24, 2027 in Naples, Florida. The Registration & Weather Refund Insurance must be purchased during your registration for the US Open.

COST & COVERAGE:

The Registration Refund Insurance is a fee of $25 per person. It covers only the individual player who purchased the insurance during registration for the US Open. It does not cover your partner unless they have also purchased the insurance.

REGISTRATION & EVENT FEE POLICY COVERAGE:

If you have not checked in to register for your first event and need to withdraw from the tournament, a 100% refund of your Registration and Event fee will be processed for the following reasons:

- Injury - doctor's note required
- Illness/Disease - doctor's note required
- Jury Duty - copy of jury duty notice required
- Your partner withdraws from the tournament and you do not participate in the event

Please note: If you apply for a full refund, you are not eligible to receive US Open Player gifts.

EVENT FEE POLICY COVERAGE:

A 100% refund of your Event fee will be refunded for the following reasons:

- If your event is completely cancelled due to weather
- If your event starts on the assigned day and is cancelled with no make-up options due to weather
- If you become sick or injured before your event starts and your partner does not find a replacement

NOT COVERED BY INSURANCE:

A refund will not be issued for the following:

- If your event starts and the format of the event gets altered due to weather
- If you are disqualified for any reason out of the tournament
- If you do not show up to your assigned court on time
- If your partner forfeits for any reason during the event
- If you sign up for the wrong skill level and you are disqualified
- If you start your event but need to forfeit due to injury or medical reasons
- If Pro events are re-scheduled due to weather and you decide not to participate
