3. Included services

• Up to 2 attendees per event at Innovation Meetups and one annual edition of Spark; one Lite Pass per attendee is included for Spark.

• Networking and community access; brand visibility and sponsorship within the limits of Article 6 of the attached terms.

• Attendee lists for Innovation Meetups.

• No speaking slots included.

4. Term, payment and renewal

The term is 12 months from activation, unless otherwise stated in the order confirmation. The annual fee is due in advance via Stripe or bank transfer using the details on page 1. Stripe payments recur: renewal frequency, date and amount are stated in checkout and the order confirmation. Cancellation must be completed before the next charge following Stripe / Innovents instructions and does not end the period already paid for. Bank transfers do not entail automatic charges. Any renewal and changes to renewal terms are governed by attached Article 8.

5. Contract documents and acceptance

The Customer subscribes in the course of its business or professional activity. The signatory declares that they have the necessary authority. This form and Appendix A (terms dated 22 September 2026, reproduced on the following pages) constitute the agreement. In case of conflict, this form, also signed by Innovents, prevails. Other plans described in the appendix are not purchased under this form. No ancillary services are included beyond those stated above.

1. Supplier identity and scope

Innovents is the brand under which Nfactory S.r.l., with registered office at Viale Beatrice d'Este 24, 20122 Milan (MI), Italy, tax code and VAT number 12495230968 (hereinafter "Innovents" or the "Supplier"), offers B2B events, community services and the Memberships described on this page. The operating address shown on the website is Via Pastrengo 14, 20159 Milan, Italy.

These terms govern the purchase and use of Innovents Memberships by individuals and companies (each, the "Customer"). Purchasing a Membership, including through Stripe checkout, constitutes acceptance of these terms.

2. Scope of the Membership

Membership entitles the Customer to the benefits expressly included in the purchased plan and published at innovents.it/membership at the time of purchase. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Membership does not include any services beyond those listed.

In particular, excluded services include, by way of example, additional visibility, expo desks, experiences, workshops, content production, special activations, additional sponsorships, business matching services and any other ancillary services. These services may be subject to a separate quotation and agreement.

3. Plans and benefits

Personal

The Personal plan allows 1 attendee per event at Innovation Meetups and Spark Innovation Summit ("Spark"), as well as networking and community access. It does not include sponsorship, brand visibility or speaking slots.

Company Member

The Company Member plan allows up to 2 attendees per event at Innovation Meetups and Spark, networking and community access, brand visibility and sponsorship within the limits of Article 6, and attendee lists for Innovation Meetups. It does not include speaking slots.

Company Partner

The Company Partner plan allows up to 2 attendees per event, the visibility benefits provided for Company Member, attendee lists for Innovation Meetups and up to 2 speaking slots in total during the membership year, which may be allocated between Innovation Meetups and Spark subject to availability and Innovents' editorial schedule.

Company Leader

The Company Leader plan allows up to 5 attendees per event, the visibility benefits provided for Company Member, attendee lists for all events (Innovation Meetups and Spark) and up to 5 speaking slots in total during the membership year, which may be allocated between Innovation Meetups and Spark subject to availability and Innovents' editorial schedule.

Attendee and speaking-slot allowances may not be transferred between plans or years, or converted into cash, credit or other services. The Customer designates its attendees and warrants that they are authorised to represent it.

4. Events, schedule and tickets

Within the limits of the purchased plan, Membership includes attendance at the Innovation Meetups held during the calendar year and, for Spark, one Lite Pass ticket for each attendee included in the plan, for one annual edition of Spark. Innovents guarantees 10 Innovation Meetups per calendar year and 1 Spark Innovation Summit per year.

Each included ticket covers admission to the event and basic catering appropriate to the time of the meetup or event. Travel, accommodation, transfers, refreshments or additional services not expressly included in the event communication are excluded.

Dates, times, formats, speakers, programmes and venues are indicative and may change. The updated schedule, including dates and venues, is available at innovents.it/events and serves as the operational reference for Customers.

Innovents may postpone, relocate, reorganise or modify an event for organisational reasons, venue unavailability or changes, bad weather, adverse conditions, safety, strikes, health emergencies, sociopolitical events, force majeure or other circumstances beyond its reasonable control. In these cases, where reasonably possible, Innovents will provide an alternative within its annual programme; the change does not entitle the Customer to any refund, compensation or additional services, provided that the number of Innovation Meetups and Spark events specified in this Article is guaranteed.

5. Registration, availability and conduct

To attend each event, all attendees must register through Eventbrite by the deadlines communicated by Innovents. Membership does not replace individual registration and does not guarantee admission to anyone who has not correctly completed registration on time.

If an event is sold out close to its date, Innovents does not guarantee attendance, including for Membership holders, where registration was not completed within the stated deadlines or capacity, safety or organisational restrictions prevent further admission. Innovents may offer a waiting list or alternatives but is not obliged to do so.

The Customer and attendees must comply with organisational instructions, safety rules, venue regulations and third-party rights. Innovents may deny or revoke admission in the event of unlawful, dangerous, harassing or discriminatory conduct, or conduct detrimental to the event, community or Innovents' reputation, without a refund.

6. Corporate visibility

For corporate plans that include it, brand visibility consists exclusively of: (a) inclusion of the logo on Innovents' online channels, including its website; (b) speaker cards on Innovents' social media channels when the Customer actually participates as a speaker; (c) offline visibility through the logo on sponsor walls and/or materials at the event, depending on the format and availability.

The Customer supplies its logo, name, any guidelines and materials in accordance with the specifications and deadlines communicated. Innovents may make technical adaptations, select positioning, size, timing and format, and reject unsuitable content, without incurring additional obligations. The Customer warrants that it holds the necessary rights and indemnifies Innovents against third-party claims relating to the supplied materials.

7. Speaking slots and content

Each included speaking slot lasts 5 minutes. At Innovation Meetups, the speech takes place on the single main stage; at Spark, it takes place on the Future Stage, the area dedicated to Members.

Speaking slots are subject to availability, editorial suitability, compliance with deadlines and organisational approval. Innovents may determine the date, slot, stage, moderation and delivery arrangements, and request changes to content. Speeches are informational and must not become misleading advertising or unlawful, offensive content or content inconsistent with the editorial approach. If the speaker is unavailable, fails to follow instructions or the event is changed, Innovents may reschedule the slot in line with the programme; no refunds or substitute services are due other than those expressly agreed.

8. Prices, payment, term and renewal

Membership prices, billing frequency and amounts are those stated on the Membership page and in Stripe checkout at the time of purchase, plus VAT where applicable. Payments are processed by Stripe under its applicable terms and payment arrangements.

Annual Membership starts on the activation date, unless otherwise stated in checkout or the order confirmation. Monthly Memberships recur according to the purchased plan. For the Company Partner and Company Leader corporate Memberships, choosing monthly payment nevertheless entails a minimum annual commitment of 12 months: the Customer must pay the full annual fee, divided into 12 monthly instalments, even if the services are not used.

At expiry, unless otherwise stated in checkout or cancelled in accordance with the applicable instructions, Membership may renew on the terms then published. Innovents reserves the right to change prices and benefits for subsequent renewals, giving notice through appropriate channels.

9. Non-payment and suspension

In the event of non-payment, a declined payment, reversal, unpaid amount or late payment of even one instalment, Innovents may immediately suspend all Membership services and benefits, including registration, admission, tickets, speaking slots, visibility and delivery of attendee lists, without prior notice and without prejudice to recovery of amounts due, interest and further damages.

Reactivation is subject to full settlement of the outstanding position and organisational availability. For monthly Partner and Leader plans, suspension does not release the Customer from the annual commitment in Article 8.

10. Withdrawal, cancellations and refunds

To the extent permitted by law, Membership fees are non-refundable in the event of non-attendance, cancellation, unavailability of a designated attendee, failure to register by the deadline or failure to use benefits. Requests to change attendees are subject to feasibility and organisational deadlines.

If the Customer acts as a consumer, any mandatory rights under applicable law, including withdrawal rules, remain unaffected; the Customer acknowledges that services with a specific performance date or period may be subject to statutory exceptions. Nothing in these terms limits such mandatory rights.

11. Images, recordings and data

Photographs, video, audio and footage may be taken during events to document, communicate and promote Innovents. Attendees are invited to notify Innovents before the event of any reasonable specific needs; Innovents cannot guarantee that they will be entirely absent from contextual footage.

Attendee lists included in corporate plans are provided solely for event-related networking. The Customer undertakes to use them in compliance with applicable law, including the GDPR, and not to transfer, publish or use them for spam or irrelevant contact. Any processing of personal data is governed by the privacy notice made available by Innovents and, where necessary, specific consents collected through Eventbrite.

12. Intellectual property and confidentiality

Innovents' trademarks, content, formats, materials, recordings and distinctive signs remain the property of Innovents or their respective owners. Membership does not transfer any intellectual property rights. The Customer may not use Innovents' name, logo or other signs beyond the limits expressly authorised in writing.

Non-public information shared during activities, meetings or exchanges with Innovents must be treated with reasonable confidentiality. Innovents is not responsible for agreements, negotiations or relationships independently established between attendees.

13. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Innovents is not liable for indirect damages, loss of opportunities, loss of profits, loss of data, reputational damage or claims arising from relationships between attendees, or for failures of third parties, including venues, ticketing platforms and payment providers. No limitation applies to wilful misconduct, gross negligence or liability that cannot lawfully be excluded.

14. Amendments and precedence

Innovents may update these terms for legal or organisational reasons or as its services evolve. The version published at innovents.it/termini-e-condizioni applies, provided that essential benefits already acquired through completed purchases will not be changed retroactively, except where required by law, safety or force majeure.

In the event of a conflict between these terms and a proposal, order or written agreement signed by Innovents, the latter prevails within the scope of its subject matter.

15. Governing law and jurisdiction

These terms are governed by Italian law. The courts of Milan have exclusive jurisdiction over any dispute, except where mandatory consumer jurisdiction applies.

16. Contacts

For Membership enquiries, the Customer may use the contact details published on innovents.it.
