

AZUL CAPITAL

Privacy Policy

Version 1 • January 2024

REGULATOR	Financial Services Commission (FSC) Mauritius
OWNER	Azul Capital
DATE	January 2024

PRIVACY & DATA PROTECTION

This policy outlines the collection, use, protection, retention and disclosure of customers' personal data.

PRIVACY POLICY

Protection of the personal customer information is a key responsibility and obligation of the Azul Capital (the "Company") management. This Privacy Policy outlines the procedure of collection, protection, keeping and use of customers' personal data.

COLLECTION

Protection of the personal customer information is a key responsibility and obligation of the Azul Capital (the "Company") management. This Privacy Policy outlines the procedure of collection, protection, keeping and use of customers' personal data.

The Company diligently and securely collects personal data provided explicitly and knowingly by our customers. This information is essential for the purpose of establishing an account on the Company's trading platform and includes the following categories of Personal Data:

- Full name
- Residential address
- Employment details
- Average income
- Additional personal details (collected only as necessary and upon specific request).

We are committed to safeguarding your data and using it solely for the intended purposes.

USE

The Company may process a customer's Personal Data based on the following grounds and for the following purposes:

- To fulfill obligations arising from agreements between the customer and the Company.
- To provide notifications about changes in products and/or services, as well as other significant alterations that may impact the performance of an agreement between the customer and the Company.
- To provide notifications about the Company's products and/or services. However, the customer's explicit consent is required to receive such information.
- In cases where the customer is required to provide Personal Data to meet legal requirements or to finalize an agreement between the customer and the Company, the Company will make the purpose of collecting Personal Data clear and provide guidance to the customer.

MAINTAIN & PROTECTION

The Company will retain the Personal Data of our customers for a duration determined at our discretion. This information will be utilized for updating customers about our products and services. However, a customer has the right to request the cessation of such updates by notifying the Company of their intent.

The Company is committed to taking all necessary measures to ensure the security of personal data and other confidential information provided by our customers, and to adhere to strict internal rules governing the use of such information.

The Company has the right to share Personal Data to the following categories of recipients:

- Tradeview group: we may make Personal Data available to any member of our group, which means any subsidiary company or holding company, and/or any subsidiary company of such holding company (the Group). This may be necessary to provide customers with or administer our products, services, customer and technical support. All of our employees and contractors are required to follow our privacy and security policies when handling personal data.
- Third party service providers: We may share Personal Data with our third-party service providers so that they can support our products and services, such as system and platform maintenance services, conducting customer due diligence or credit checks, collecting customer feedback, marketing and advertising services, and data analytics and search engine services. Our third-party service providers are permitted to use Personal Data only for the purpose of providing services to us and may not otherwise share or use your personal information.

- Fraud prevention and credit reference agencies: We may share Personal Data with our third-party service providers to conduct anti-money laundering, fraud, sanctions, credit risk and customer due diligence checks, credit reference checks and fraud prevention checks.
- Introducers and advisers: We may disclose Personal Data to an introducer if they directed the customer to us.
- Courts, regulators and law enforcement agencies: We will share Personal Data when we believe it is required to comply with applicable legal or regulatory obligations and to respond to requests from government authorities, including law enforcement or financial regulators. This may include authorities outside the customers' country of residence.
- Other third parties: We may share Personal Data in the event of a merger, sale, restructure, acquisition, joint venture, assignment, transfer or other disposition of all or any portion of our business, assets or stock. If you have questions about or need further information concerning the lawful basis on which we collect and use your personal information.

Personal Data is stored electronically on the Company's servers. When Personal Data is no longer needed, it will be securely destroyed or deleted using methods that prevent unauthorized third parties from accessing the data during and after the destruction/deletion process.

Maintaining the confidentiality of one's user ID and login is the responsibility of each customer.

COOKIES

The Company utilizes cookies on its website. Cookies are small files that are stored on a user's computer. They are designed to hold a limited amount of data specific to a particular client and website, and they can be accessed by either the web server or the client's computer. Cookies may be employed on certain pages of the Site to enhance the user's browsing experience by providing a more customized experience.

CUSTOMER CONSENT & RIGHTS

By accessing the Company's website, a customer hereby consents to the collection, use, maintenance, and disclosure of their personal data in accordance with the provisions outlined in the privacy policy above.

The Customer is entitled to the following rights:

- To request and obtain a copy of the Personal Data held by the Company.
- To request the amendment and/or correction of any incorrect or incomplete data. The Company is obligated to fulfill such requests and notify relevant third parties to whom the data was transmitted.
- To request that the Company ceases processing their Personal Data. It is important to note that refusing to allow the processing of Personal Data may impact the provision of certain Company services.
- To request the erasure of Personal Data from the Company's records. The Company will comply with such requests unless there is a lawful reason not to do so.
- To lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority, although we encourage the Customer to first contact us so that we can attempt to resolve the issue to their satisfaction and thoroughly investigate potential reasons for future complaints.