

CONSUMER DIRECTED SERVICES

GET PAID TO CARE FOR YOUR LOVED ONES! CAREGIVERS EARN $15.25 AN HOUR WEEKLY PAY

ABOUT CDS WHAT IS CDS?

This unique Medicaid program offers patients the opportunity to be more in control of who provides their care and support. Self-directed care, or consumer-directed services (CDS), allows patients to choose their own caregiver directly and coordinate with HomeTeam to manage the more complicated aspects such as payroll, taxes, and plan of care.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE PROVIDED

- Grocery shopping and other errands
- Preparing meals and feeding
- Transportation
- Assisting with medications
- Performing light housekeeping
- Bathing, dressing, and grooming
- Toileting
- Other activities of daily living

WHO QUALIFIES TO RECEIVE SERVICES?

Participants must be Medicaid eligible, able to self direct care, and require assistance with activities of daily living.

WHO CAN PROVIDE SERVICES?

With CDS, you may hire friends or family members to provide direct-care services. Spouses do not qualify.
