System Overview

METL is a multiuser, cloud hosted (within the customer VPC), web application that enables multiple data sources to be connected with a cloud data warehouse (CDW) to enable data to be loaded into the CDW and queried by users. METL allows the processing of data into a range of cloud data warehouses including; Snowflake, Redshift, Big Query, and Synapse and provides connectors for over 100 third-party services.

Alex Villalba, alex@builtbymasonry.com 2024-06-26T20:05:48.717Z