INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

At times material to this Indictment:

Background

1. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security ("CARES") Act was a federal law enacted on or about March 27, 2020, to provide emergency financial assistance to Americans suffering economic harms from the COVID-19 pandemic.

2. One source of relief provided by the CARES Act was the authorization of forgivable loans to small businesses for job retention and certain other expenses, through the Paycheck Protection Program ("PPP"). The PPP loan application required that businesses acknowledge, through authorized representatives, the program rules and make certain affirmative certifications to be eligible to obtain the PPP loan.

3. PPP loan applications were submitted through the U.S. Small Business Administration ("SBA") website portal for initial review and sent to financial institutions for processing. The SBA would preliminarily approve the loan packet and forward it to a designated financial institution. After the SBA approval, the financial institution would review and process the packet, fund the loan, and deposit the proceeds into the applicant's bank account. The SBA, however, guaranteed the loans.

4. In 2020, the CARES Act expanded the SBA's long-standing Economic Injury Disaster Loans ("EIDL") by recognizing a nationwide COVID EIDL. Unlike PPP loans, which were made through private and nonprofit lenders and guaranteed through the federal government, the SBA EIDL were made directly by the federal government through the SBA website portal.

5. In order to obtain a COVID-19 EIDL, a qualifying business was required to submit an EIDL application to the SBA and provide information about its operations. The amount of the advance and the loan, if the application was approved, was determined based, in part, on the information provided in the application concerning the number of employees, gross revenues, and cost of goods sold for the 12-month period preceding January 31, 2020. The borrower signed an agreement that it would use all of the proceeds "solely as working capital to alleviate economic injury caused by" the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Defendant, Related Entities, and Individuals

6. Defendant April Watson, also known as April Watson Horton and April Shawnette Watson ("Watson"), was a resident of Dallas and DeSoto and later of Arlington and Cedar Hill, all within the Northern District of Texas. Watson was the owner and manager of the following entities:

a. Exotic Bliss Beauty LLC ("Exotic Bliss"), a Texas limited liability company located in Dallas;

b. Brain Evolution LLC ("Brain Evolution"), a Texas limited liability company located in Duncanville, Texas.

7. Southern Home Ventures, LLC ("Southern Home Ventures") was a Texas Limited Liability Company located in Dallas that remodeled residential homes. Southern Home Ventures was co-owned by Watson and another individual known to the grand jury.

Financial Institutions

8. JPMorgan Chase ("JPMC") was a financial institution as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 20 whose deposits were insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation ("FDIC").

9. Kabbage, Inc. ("Kabbage'') was a financial institution headquartered in Atlanta, Georgia that participated in the Paycheck Protection Program as a third-party lender and disbursed PPP loans to Exotic Bliss and Southern Home Ventures.

Scheme

11. 12. The scheme to defraud operated, in substance, as follows:

a. In or around May 2020, in support of PPP loan applications for Exotic Bliss and Southern Home Ventures, Watson caused to be prepared and submitted to Kabbage false Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") and payroll documents, such as IRS Form W-2s and W-3s, purportedly prepared by a payroll company. In fact, no business tax returns related to the wages of Southern Home Ventures or Exotic Bliss were ever filed with the IRS for 2019 or 2020, and no payroll forms were prepared by the company purportedly used.

b. In order to obtain EIDL funds from the SBA, Watson prepared and caused the submission of applications on behalf of Exotic Bliss and Southern Home Ventures that falsely inflated each entity's gross revenues for the 12-month period ending January 31, 2020. In reality, no business tax returns related to the gross revenues for Exotic Bliss or Southern Home Ventures were ever filed with the IRS for 2019 or 2020.

13. As a result of Watson's scheme to defraud, Kabbage disbursed approximately $210,698.00 in PPP funds to accounts Watson controlled, and the SBA disbursed approximately $299,800.00 in EIDL funds to accounts Watson controlled.

CRIMINAL NO.

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION TO SEAL INDICTMENT

The United States of America ("the Government"), by and through the United States Attorney for the Northern District of Texas and the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, moves for an order sealing the indictment returned by the grand jury in the above-captioned criminal case. The Government requests that the indictment remain sealed until such time as the defendant is apprehended, or until further order of the Court. The Government believes that the public release of the name of the indicted defendants before they have been apprehended would undermine the pursuit of justice. The Government, however, requests that the case against each defendant be unsealed upon the apprehension and appearance of that defendant.
