Beef – a treat for connoisseurs

Whether ribeye, roast beef, chuck or leg slices – fine beef requires respect and careful preparation. BECK has developed spices and marinades for you that carefully bring out the special qualities of this delicate meat when grilling, cooking or smoking.

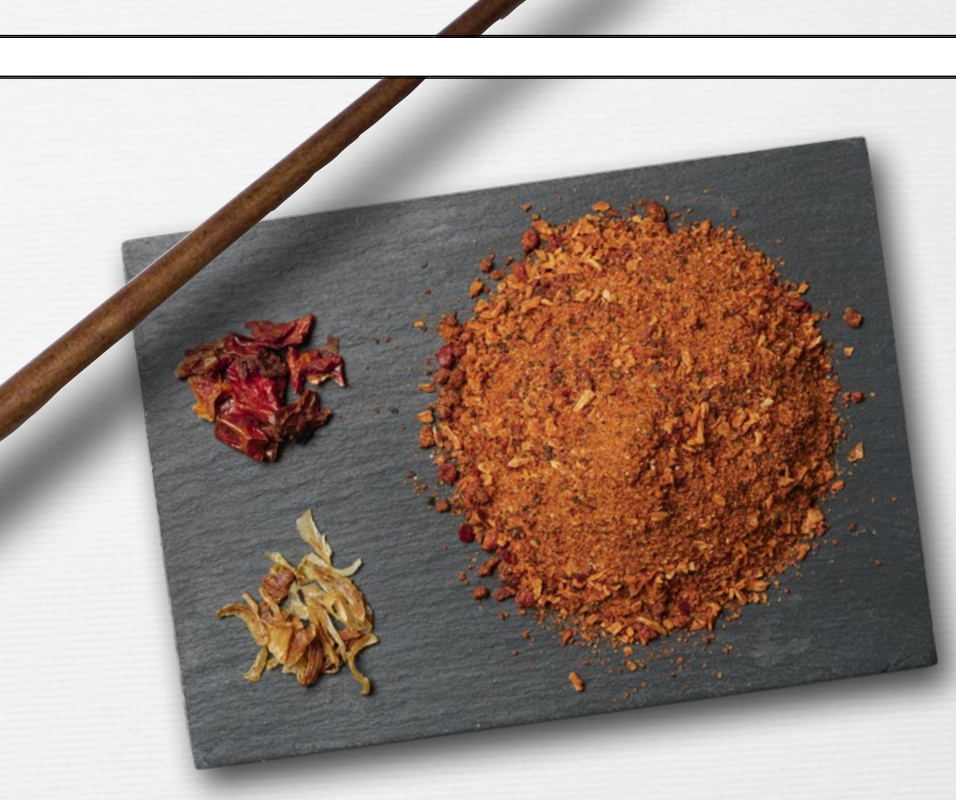

In Argentina, chimichurri is used to season both grilled meat and vegetables. It is particularly popular with beef, which is grilled over an open fire in the asado style. We have had this slightly lemony mixture of chilli, garlic, oregano and parsley in our range as a barbecue spice since 2025 (Art. № 52.9342000). BBQ fans lick their fingers for it! That's why we thought chimichurri would be even better as a marinade!
