From poultry to game and seafood or vegetarian:
Tasty treats for every palate

The best ingredients for the flavor trends 2023

BBQ temptations

The most delicious spice blends and marinades for a great barbecue season

Marinades and barbecue spices

BECK always considers your needs: We know you are extremely busy during the BBQ season to keep your customers happy. That's why we make seasoning and marinating as easy as it can be for you. In our portfolio we demonstrate you how our marinades and spice blends look, taste and with which barbecue foods you achieve the best results.

How to find the perfect seasoning:

BECK barbecue spices and marinades can be used in many different ways and are often suitable for a wide variety of barbecued foods. To make it easy for you to see at one glance what our products can be used for, you will find our corresponding color symbols below each spice and marinade description.

Processing:

When preparing your grill food in a tumbler or by hand, it's best to follow the dosing instructions on the packaging when adding marinades and barbecue spices. Of course, you still have plenty of options to provide the seasoning with an individual touch.

Rule of thumb for marinades:
Use 100 g marinade per 1 kg total mass.

Packaging sizes and storage:

We supply barbecue spices in convenient 1 kg bags – or in batches according to your needs. If you store the spices in their unopened original packaging in a cool, dry place, they will keep up to 24 months.
Liquid marinades are always delivered in 5 kg buckets. Please remember to stir the marinades thoroughly before use. In their original unopened packaging, marinades will keep up to 12 months in cool, dry conditions.

Your benefits:

- minimal time and effort
- maximum variety for the counter
- classic, trendy and surprising taste sensations
- satisfied customers who become real fans
