A BREATH OF FRESH aiR

Feeling suffocated by the amount of review for your upcoming litigation? PLUSnxt is providing a breath of fresh air with aiR for Review by RelativityOne.

aiR is designed to alleviate the stress of the review process, providing the support needed to manage complex challenges. By harnessing advanced AI, aiR enhances accuracy and efficiency, freeing up valuable time to focus on strategy. Our goal is to offer relief to those overwhelmed by the demands of review, making the process smoother and more manageable.

The aiR process is as effortless as taking a breath

- Attorney describes the matter: The initial objectives and key parameters is provided by the case team who outlines the case.
- aiR analyzes documents using review descriptions: The AI engine conducts an in-depth analysis of the documents, identifying key patterns, themes, and potential areas of interest. aiR automatically organizes the data, applying AI-driven analytics to categorize and prioritize documents based on relevance and importance.
- Attorney reviews aiR's analysis: aiR generates actionable insights, helping law firms and legal teams to make informed decisions and refine their strategies. The AI's recommendations are tailored to the specific needs of the case, providing a strategic advantage.

No Guessing; All Confidence

The AI-generated results are supported by document excerpts and clear rationale, promoting trust and understanding. The review analysis will indicate if documents are "likely responsive" or "non-responsive." The user can then go through the material highlighted by AI and decide—with confidence—which direction to take the review. With aiR, this process is completed in a fraction of the time compared to other review methods, making aiR one of the most cost-effective options for our clients.
